World Empire – Final Destination
Massive Spotlight, on How Mystery Babylon is Fueling the Creation of a Twenty First Century, One World Government!

SYMBOLS AND MONUMENTS OF DECEPTION
(Part 4)
Occult government must be understood for what it is. The word occult means to be hidden or obscured from view. Historically it has not been the nature of those who practice occult arts to broadcast their secret ‘knowledge’ from the housetops. Most who practice these arts would normally swear oaths and make pacts with one another never to reveal the nature of their associations. This has previously made investigation of their influence difficult but not impossible. This is why the symbols and monuments used in occult government and religion, provide the clues we need to fully understand the purpose and agenda. The most disturbing and frightening conclusion is that all of the available evidence points to the fact that Occult Government is a reality that is now being openly promoted by pop-culture, mainstream media and the governments of the world. One must find clear and convincing examples of Occult government, its patterns and method of operation to understand what occult government is. This report addresses this requirement.
WORLD EMPIRE – FINAL DESTINATION PART 4: SYMBOLS AND MONUMENTS OF DECEPTION
1. EVIDENCE I – AMERICA AND THE MASONIC CONNECTION

What you are about to read is not what certain elitist groups would want you to know. The Illuminati do not want you to understand the following. But they have left their footprint behind, so that we can detect something of their existence. Once we know what to look for, then we can understand. Sometimes that which is incredible, may actually be credible.

On a number of occasions I have quoted the eminent Manly Hall because of his unparalleled status within Masonic, esoteric and occultic circles. Once again I would like to use his work as evidence of The Illuminati and an illuminist agenda. In his book, ‘The Secret Teachings of All Ages’, which is like no other esoteric work of the twentieth century, he wrote:

Not only were many of the founders of the United States Government Masons, but they received aid from a secret and august body existing in Europe, which helped them to establish this country for a peculiar and particular purpose known only to the initiated few. The Great Seal (the eagle and pyramid designs on the 1 dollar bill - although the eagle is found independently elsewhere) is the signature of this exalted body – unseen and for the most part unknown – and the unfinished pyramid upon its reverse side is a trestle board setting forth symbolically the task to the accomplishment of which the United States Government was dedicated from the day of its inception. (My parenthesis for explanation and my emphasis).

How about that for an admission! I think it is possible that the ‘august body existing in Europe’, from which the US government received aid, may have been linked with The Bavarian Illuminati, although Manly Hall does not specify. In his other book, ‘The Secret Destiny of America’, Hall also admits to the existence of secret societies, dating back to the earliest times, out of which there has grown an ‘Order of the Quest’. In it he writes, after years of personal research, that he believes there is:

‘...a body of enlightened humans, united in what might be termed an Order of the Quest. It is composed of those whose intellectual and spiritual perceptions have revealed to them that civilisation has a Secret Destiny – secret, I say, because this high purpose is not realised by the many; the great masses of people still live along without any knowledge whatsoever that they are part of a Universal Motion in time and space... 411 ...In this way the old dream of the philosophic empire descended from the ancient world to modern time... For more than three thousand years, secret societies have laboured to create the background of knowledge necessary to the establishment of an enlightened democracy among the nations of the world... It is beyond question that the secret societies of all ages have exercised a considerable degree of political influence...’ 412 My emphasis.

Hall’s position is that America has a special role to play; the force behind a global movement to shape the Earth into a ‘one-world’ expression. American ‘Democracy’ is ‘part of a Universal Plan’. 413 Indeed if Hall is correct, then this is a frightening fact, because America has global influence and power because of its size and wealth. In Hall’s analysis of ancient societies and their secret groups, he cites the mythological Atlantis, which he uses as an example of a ‘pattern of world government’. 414 The chapter is called ‘The Ancient League of Nations’, which, as a title, has an interesting parallel to its twentieth century counterpart – The League of Nations. Atlantis was ruled over by a league of ‘ten kings’, which has an interesting similarity to the ten kings ruling the earth in Revelation 17v12, 18.

Hall’s work also details the various goals of this Order, and they are in line with the information I have referred to in this book. He also argues that at the time of America’s formation, secret societies with this agenda were set up, stemming back to the person of Francis Bacon. Bacon had a Christian worldview but he was also Cabbalistic and a Rosicrucian, with his beliefs probably being influential upon what later became speculative Freemasonry. Freemasonry, as previously noted, became a dominant force in America. Of course let us not forget that true, biblical Christianity was also being birthed in the USA! I would suggest then, that America has always had a hidden spiritual battle within itself: between genuine Christianity and the agenda of these secret societies. As the evidence will soon demonstrate, I believe that a number of Presidents from America, and other powerful personages in high political places, have been conduits for this ancient esoteric ideology, which continues today. In ‘Lectures on Ancient Philosophy’, Hall further states, having marvelled on Francis Bacon’s vision of the perfect state, that:

‘In its philosophy the New Atlantis sets forth an ideal government of the earth. It foretells that day when in the midst of men there shall rise up a vast institution composed of the philosophic elect – an order of illumined men…’ My emphasis.

Finally Hall concedes:

‘In Freemasonry is concealed the mystery of creation, the answer to the problem of existence, and the path the student must tread in order to join those who are really the living powers behind the thrones of modern national and international affairs. The true student realises most of all that the taking of degrees does not make a man a Mason… he is evolved… He must realise that his duty is to build and evolve the sacred teachings in his own being: that nothing but his own purified being can unlock the door to the sealed libraries of human consciousness, and that his Masonic rites must eternally be speculative until he makes them operative by living the life of the mystic Mason. His karmic responsibilities increase with his opportunities… The Masonic order is not a mere social organisation, but is composed of all those who have banded themselves together to learn and apply the principles of mysticism and the occult rites’. My emphasis.

These are astonishing claims coming from a man who was a 33rd degree Freemason and at the absolute apex of his field. If he is claiming such things, then we really ought to take notice. The evidence simply points to the fact many Freemasons have been ‘political’, some more than others – but by no means the majority. Often it is only those in the highest ranks that bear this criticism, as is the case for many other belief systems and ideologies.

A number of writers have concluded that historically Freemasonry has been less politically subversive in Britain than on the Continent, although this will always remain an open question. Certainly there have been many secret societies with a Masonic ‘affinity’, which have been influential in this way. A helpful article by Dr Gianni DeVincent Hayes, author of fifteen published books, has a short summary about secret societies that may help the reader. She too is convinced that organisations are at work furthering a globalised, New World Order. In the words of Arthur Waite, 33rd degree Freemason:

‘Beneath the broad tides of human history there flow the stealthy undercurrents of the secret societies, which frequently determine in the depth the changes that take place upon the surface’.

Finally, the infamous Albert Pike, fellow 33rd degree Freemason, admits on the last page of his book, ‘Morals and Dogma’, to the 32nd degree Freemason, ‘Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret’, the following ambition. Pike’s desire is to make: ‘possible, and shall at length make real, the HOLY EMPIRE of the true Masonic Brotherhood’. (Pike’s own emphasis). In context Pike’s words are based upon the perfecting of Man through Masonry. He cites Cabbalist thought as part of this, and the importance of balancing out the forces within humanity on into perfection.
In 1776, which interestingly was the same year Weishaupt launched The Bavarian Illuminati, Freemason and Rosicrucian Benjamin Franklin, one of the founding fathers of America, along with a group of other men, began work on the design of the ‘Great Seal’, literally within hours of the ‘Declaration of Independence’. By 1782 the Great Seal was in use publicly. The Great Seal is comprised of both the pyramid and the eagle designs above. It is worth noting that Benjamin Franklin was good friends of Sir Francis Dashwood, British Chancellor of the Exchequer; the founder of the infamous and wicked ‘Hellfire Club’ near High Wycombe, England. Some additional important facts are under this endnote. 421 Dashwood had good connections; he was advisor and friend to King George III. However, it was not until 1935 that the Great Seal design was put on the 1 dollar bill too. It was President Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Vice President Henry Wallace who chose to do this; both were 32nd and 33rd degree Freemasons respectively. 422 423 It is worth remembering that Clinton Roosevelt was a member of one of the first illuminist lodges in America, so there is an ancestral linkage here. In fact my media version of the Masonic work, ‘10,000 Famous Freemasons’ by Freemason William Denslow, also confirms a dominance of Freemasonry upon the Roosevelt family line and the aforementioned Roosevelt’s degree in Freemasonry. It also confirms Wallace’s membership to The Craft. Today the eagle design of the Great Seal appears in many places and organisations within America, and on civilian items such as Passports. As the facts will demonstrate, this Great Seal is occultic and thoroughly in keeping with Manly Hall’s statement about it.

Undoubtedly one can see straight away that the pyramid is Egyptian, so we have an ancient Egyptian mysteries link. Pyramids are also triangular in shape, which is an occultic symbol as we know from our previous sections. The pyramid also has an eye at the top in a separate little triangle. That eye represents the ‘All Seeing Eye’ of Osiris, the solar god. So it relates to the Egyptian ‘god of light’ and means ‘light bearing’, ‘shining one’, ‘luminous’ and thus it has links with the word ‘Lucifer’ and illuminism.

As you will recall this is also closely related to the meaning of the word ‘Illuminati’. Relevantly, Manly Hall in the book, ‘The Lost Keys of Freemasonry’, has a picture of a Master Mason standing atop a pyramid, illuminated and upward stretching, and this demonstrates that the Master Mason has become, through his initiation and understanding, a divine king. 424 The All Seeing Eye is found in his work too; proving its relevance to Freemasonry. Freemasonry also has great interest in the Dog Star, Sirius. This star is related to Isis, Osiris and the All Seeing Eye, as Albert Pike’s work makes clear. These facts demonstrate that Freemasonry is further proven to be linked with the ancient mysteries, as well as having an astrological basis inherent within its higher levels. Further, the word ‘America’ is probably derived from ‘Ameru’, the serpent-god of South America. Ameru was also known as Quetzalcoatl to the Aztecs, and Viracocha to the people of Central Andes. Quetzalcoatl, Ameru and Viracocha all correspond to the Egyptian god, Osiris.

One can also see that when that little triangle is placed upon the rest of the pyramid, the pyramid will be fully completed. When that occurs the work of building the pyramid will be done. But what building work is that? The words ‘novus ordo seclorum’ at the bottom of the pyramid tell us. As I explained earlier, they mean ‘New World Order’ or ‘New Order of the Ages’. Therefore the building work will be completed when the New World Order comes to complete fruition; that is when the capstone will finally be symbolically placed upon the pyramid.

There are also some Roman numerals on the bottom of the pyramid: MDCCLXXVI. Simply by reading from left to right these Roman numerals calculate to the date 1776, the year the Illuminati began and when this Seal was first being designed. Interestingly if you construct the Cabbalist, Masonic symbol called the Hexagram or Seal of Solomon/Star of David, in the following way, you get the word ‘Mason’, because each point touches the appropriate letters in the words around the pyramid.

The eagle is a very important symbol within Freemasonry, which I shall detail further shortly. However, you will recall that the double headed eagle is found particularly within the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. So it is most evocative that the eagle appears on the Great Seal, and occurs as a regular symbol within the United States of America. Originally, when the Great Seal was first designed, a phoenix was used instead of the eagle. A phoenix, amongst other things, symbolises rebirth and, once again, can be traced back to Egypt; the birthing of the new from the old order. The eagle replaced the phoenix in 1841 as the USA’s national bird. It is worth noting how important the phoenix is within Masonic and occultic symbolism. Manly Hall suggests that whenever an eagle is used in Masonry, one needs to bear in mind its relationship to the phoenix for a proper understanding of its meaning. Perhaps then, the eagle or rather the phoenix, is meant to represent the end of the old order, and the re-birthing of a new (world) order? After all, the phoenix is famous for rising again out from the ashes of the old.
In the book ‘The Cult of the All Seeing Eye’, by Keith Spenser, some amazing facts emerge. In his book he has a copy of an article by James Walker, 32nd degree Freemason, from ‘The New Age’ publication, which was from an official organ of ‘The Supreme Council 33rd degree Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction of America’. Because of Walker’s standing as a Mason, because of his degree, I will quote from his article about the Great Seal. First, Walker explains that the eagle design is very Masonic. Further, in the eagle’s claws are 13 leaves in the olive branches, 13 bars and stripes in the shield, 13 arrows, 13 letters in the phrase ‘E pluribus Unum’ on the ribbon, 13 stars in the green crest above it, and 32 wing feathers representing the 32nd degree in Masonry. Incidentally, ‘e pluribus unum’ means: ‘out of many, one’, which in my mind has certain undertones of many nations and peoples merging together as the ‘one world’.

The pyramid design is also interesting, we see: 13 granite stones in the pyramid and there are 13 letters in Annuit Coeptis, which means: ‘He approves our undertaking’. Most people know that the number thirteen is occultic, an ‘unlucky’ number; so much so that many apartment blocks miss the number out when they numerate the different dwellings. Manly Hall’s work proves, without a doubt, that the number 13 is highly occultic and mystical.

Walker also writes: ‘on the front of the dollar bill is the seal of the United States made up of a key, square, and the Scales of Justice, as well as a compass which, of course, is an important symbol in Masonry’. It should also be noted that whereas the eagle has 32 feathers on its right wing, it has 33 on its left wing, which is the highest degree within Masonry. The tail feathers number 9, which may refer to the number of degrees in the York Rite, which is in its own right a multiple of the number 3.

Looking just above the eagle’s head you will see 13 five-pointed stars within a cloud. The 5 pointed stars are arranged in the shape of a hexagram - or the Seal of Solomon/Star of David! Once again then we have a Cabbalist, Masonic link. The pentagram, (and pentalpha) and the hexagram (that is the five and six pointed stars respectively) are both powerful tools used by pagans. In Cabbalism the number 13 is expressive of ‘unity’. Greek and Hebrew letters have numerical values. The Hebrew word ‘echad’, which means ‘one’, also adds up numerically to 13 in value; numerologically speaking. Naturally the number ‘one’ itself implies unity as well, which would be in keeping with the New World Order concept.

A fascinating article, which demonstrates the deeper Cabbalist meanings of the Great Seal, is written by Rabbi Ariel Bar Tzadok. After all, if Freemasonry is dependent upon Cabbalism, then such associations ought to be distinctly possible in a Masonic symbol such as the Great Seal. Admittedly Tzadok denies any political ambitions within Cabbalism, regarding it as merely spiritual, but does agree that Masonry has had, and does have, political involvement in the world. He also admits that Freemasonry uses Cabbalist symbols and has adopted its ‘wisdom teachings’. Bearing in mind the fact that modern Israel uses a Cabbalist Star of David on its flag, I cannot agree that Cabbalism has no political side to it. Predominantly it is spiritual and religious, but its outworking has indeed had a political result and will yet result in a more global expression.

Interestingly at the Prayer Room in the United States Capitol Hill you will find a stained glass window, upon which are lots of occultic and Masonic imagery. On the picture, there are 2 Jewish Menorah (lampstands) too. The Great Seal is also on this window, including the eagle and the All Seeing Eye pyramid. Upon it George Washington kneels in homage, and a giant occultic ‘X’, which has links to Egyptian mysteries and occultism, representing its Sun god, fills half the size of the overall window. George Washington was a Mason, but certainly not illuminised. Richardson’s Monitor of Freemasonry also details a skull and cross bones (the bones effectively creating an ‘X’) for the degrees of Knights of the East and West (17th) and Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret (32nd).

THE HIDDEN DOUBLE HEADED EAGLE

Finally I would like to draw your attention to some additional thoughts about the double headed eagle. It is important that we do because at the moment we have only seen the use of the single headed eagle within our study about American symbolism and that it always looks left. However, in the office of the President at the White House, we find an interesting fact. On the floor, on the carpet where the President sits, you will find the image of the eagle of the Great Seal. On it the eagle looks to the left as normal. There are also light rays around this image where the President often meets with the highest men and women of his Administration. The rays are particularly concentrated around where the President sits at the top, symbolising his higher ‘illumination’.

But in this room is a desk. On this desk there is an eagle which looks to the right. So, there is an eagle on the carpet looking to the left, and one on the desk looking to the right. That is our double headed eagle! As you will recall the double headed eagle is a symbol found in the higher circles of Freemasonry, adorning many of the books I have. It has a similar meaning to the Star of David, the yin and yang and other symbols, where the opposites are synthesised together as one. The merging of the two forces symbolises that the final end goal of perfection has been reached. It is based on pantheism, where the ‘god force’ acts in the world. As far as other aspects pertaining to The United States of America are concerned, the ‘Statue of Liberty’ or ‘Freedom Statue’ in New York, was built by a Mason, which contains many secret coded messages. His name was Auguste Betholdi, a member of France’s Grand Orient Lodge. The woman on the Statue of Liberty also has similarities to a woman on an ancient Roman Empire medal.

It is pertinent to note the design and overall structure of the buildings in Washington DC. I believe many buildings have been put together to create an overall design in the capital; an occultic Masonic design. Likewise Debra Rae concedes this viewpoint in her book ‘ABCs of Globalism’, claiming that apparently every key federal building has a ‘cornerstone laid in Masonic ritual with specific Masonic paraphernalia placed within each one’. An interesting film I have watched about this is ‘Riddles in Stone’, and it again gives further evidence that these assertions are true. I fully recommend this film because it gives some excellent irrefutable insights into Masonry and its pagan linkage. Indeed, the book ‘Mysterious Monuments: Encyclopaedia of secret Illuminati designs, Masonic Architecture, and Occult Places’, further substantiates the importance of architecture as an expression of such secretive groups. This book is quite astounding in its scope and factuality. Some of its claims are debatable, but with over 600 pages of photographic evidence, one cannot deny that there is something sinister, occultic and illuminist about many of today’s important architectural designs. In America and elsewhere, there are many buildings with Babylonian, Egyptian, Greek and Roman designs to them. After all, 33rd degree Freemason, Palmer Manly Hall, wrote: ‘Architecture remained a chosen instrument for the perpetuation of The Grand Design - the building of a perfect world’.
2. THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCILD

INTRODUCTION

It may be a surprise for the reader to find a chapter on the Rothschilds, but my cursory reference to them with regard to their probable financial linkages to Russian communism, already demonstrates their importance in global affairs. They are also a critical component, simply because they are historically tightly bound to Israel and her development as a nation. Israel of course, is at the heart of the end times schema. That is why the study of this bloodline is vital.

Many people have heard of the House of Rothschild and they know that they have great wealth. What many may not know is that the Rothschilds have an old history, which dates back to at least the seventeenth century. Indeed their roots are even more ancient through the Feibesch genealogy, dating to at least as early as 1450. However it was not until the mid-eighteenth century that this Dynasty began to take prominence. It was with the birth of Mayer Amschel Bauer, an Ashkenazi Jew, in 1744 in Frankfurt, Germany, that the Rothschild family began its ascendancy. The Bauer family placed a ‘red sign’ above their front door as a means of identification. Persecuted Jews often used symbols for designation at that time, but this particular sign was significant indeed.

The term ‘red sign’ in German is: rot schild. Rot Schild when linked together becomes the infamous surname ‘Rothschild’! Moreover, a number of writers claim that the red sign was the Cabbalist hexagram, the six pointed star, or, as it is now commonly called ‘The Star of David’! This fact and its association with the Rothschilds, is verified by a number of sources including the Encyclopaedia Judaica.

Remarkably then, the name ‘Rothschild’, being based on the red sign, the hexagram, is in itself, a highly Cabbalistic name. By 1822 the six pointed star was used on the Rothschilds’ coat of arms. Indeed, Messianic Jew, Dr Graham, in her book ‘The Six Pointed Star’, states that the star can be traced sequentially ‘from Egypt, to King Solomon, to Rothschild and then to Zionism’. Mayer Amschel was also a devout student of the Jewish Talmud.

To be precise it was this branch of the Bauer lineage which was called Rothschild, not all. Naturally many Bauers still exist in the world today, some of whom will be traceable to these ancient roots. Mayer Amschel Bauer had 5 sons - Nathan, Karl, James, Amschel and Saloman, which were then represented by the five arrows on the familiar Rothschild plaque. These sons went on to represent Rothschild interests in Britain, Germany and France, in particular, but Austria and Italy were also under their influence, through lending money to many governments and high powered people. Essentially the Rothschilds invented modern international, global, banking. It seems as though the Rothschild’s wealth truly began to grow from 1775 onwards, through a relationship with William IX, Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel; the inheritor of the largest private fortune in Europe.

ISRAEL AND THE ROTHSCHILD-ZIONISM CONNECTION

It is important to note that The Balfour Declaration was written to the zoologist and Zionist Lord Walter Rothschild on November 2\(^{nd}\) 1917; granting permission for a Jewish homeland in Palestine, and thus the creation of Israel. This fact clearly demonstrates the continued importance and strength of the House of Rothschild, many years after they first began their ascendancy. And, as I wrote in my chapter on Cabbalism, the Star of David is the sign which Israel sits under. This hexagram, as you will recall, is about the perfecting of Man, the World and the Universe - it is pantheistic; ‘as above, so below’. Cabbalism also teaches about the re-building of the Third Temple and the coming reign of their messiah.

That is why the Rothschild connection to this symbol is so important. Rothschild crests often have Masonic eagles upon them, some are double headed eagles. These facts support the Cabbalist and Masonic claim I have made with regard to this bloodline. Incidentally, Lord Arthur Balfour was a British Conservative politician; Prime Minister from 1902 to 1905.
Rothschild money helped create the modern state of Israel. It would never have existed, or at least be far, far less developed, without it. A reading of Fredric Morton’s ‘The Rothschilds: Portrait of a Dynasty’, and Virginia Cowles ‘The Rothschilds’, clearly demonstrates the huge finances they have put into this country. The buying up of Palestine, its irrigation, building of universities, vineyards, agriculture, its central bank - were all funded through them. Initially the main Rothschild involved with this was Edmond James de Rothschild from 1882 onwards, although his father also took great interest. Edmond also: ‘built the first pipeline from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean to bring Iranian oil to Israel and founded the Israel General Bank’. He was called ‘the father of modern Israel’ and even appears on Israeli currency - the 500 shekel bank note. Shimon Peres, like former Israeli Prime Minister David ben Gurion, commented that no other family has given so much of their personal wealth to a country, as the Rothschilds have to Israel.

Edmond de Rothschild also became involved with the Zionist movement, having relationships with Zionist advocates such Theodor Herzl, David Wolfsohn and later Chaim Weizmann. The Rothschilds became one of the largest funders of the ‘World Zionist Congress’ from about 1897 onwards. The World Zionist Congress, which later became the World Zionist Organisation, was a body created to promote Zionism and to prepare the world’s governments for a homeland for the Jews, which later became Israel in 1948. Rothschild signatories appear on a number of their early documents, such as Lord Walter Rothschild, Carola W Rothschild (nee Warburg) and Carla Marburg Rothschild. Edmond de Rothschild’s son, James Armand de Rothschild, donated large sums of money to Israel too, an example being for the building of the Israeli Knesset. James’ wife, Dorothy de Rothschild, paid for the building of the Israeli Supreme Court, as this New York Times article, and other sources, make clear. This intriguing building will be examined in due course.

It is significant that The World Zionist Congress, and later Israel, at the insistence of the Rothschilds, both had the Cabballistic, Masonic Star of David used for their logo and their flag respectively. The more orthodox Jews desired that the Menorah (a Jewish lampstand) should be the national logo; but the occult Cabballists won the day. Today the World Zionist Organisation is massively powerful, and should not be underestimated. It is a global body, now adorned with a multiple composite triangular Star of David as its logo.
Likewise the World Jewish Congress is also a vital component in Jewish global influence. An example would be that the European Jewish Congress in 2009 told the European Union to pull its Ambassadors from Iran, and its senior delegation has recently met President of Russia Dmitry Medvedev and Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov in Moscow, ‘to discuss issues of global importance’. The Rothschilds are intimately tied, historically, to the World Jewish Congress through the powerful Bronfman family. Even today Matthew Bronfman is the chairman of its Governing Board. Similarly its Vice President, Roger Cukierman, has worked for the Edmond de Rothschild Group.

The Rothschilds and their banking and investment enterprises are legendary. However, it is necessary to appreciate that other Jewish banks are also powerful and many other Jewish Cabbalists have great influence in the world today. It would be wrong to think otherwise. My emphasis upon the Rothschilds is simply because of the Israel connection to them, their Cabbalist stance and because Israel itself is a highly important part of eschatology in its own right. It seems as though the Rothschilds and Jewish banking generally, along with their connections, come within the ‘umbrella’ of these international Jewish bodies. They are also linked into many Gentile banks and globalist organisations, creating an even greater power base.

POLITICAL OR ‘DARK’ ZIONISM

Zionism and Israel are inexorably linked and therefore Zionism must have relevance to the end times picture. After all, the Beast will finally rule from Jerusalem. It is also important to appreciate that Zionism contains a broad political philosophy. Those under its expression are Cabbalists, Conservative Jews, some are atheists and others secularists - with many shades in between. Christians need to be aware of these facts. It is the messianic Cabbalistic end of Zionism which concerns me the most, specifically when it promotes Israel to be the guiding power in the world.

In order to create some distinction, I will use the phrase ‘political Zionism’ from now on, in order to highlight the Zionism backed and supported by the Cabbalist agenda of the Rothschilds and other persons and groups. Indeed ‘Dark Zionism’ may be a more useful term. Certainly the Rothschilds are at the extreme end of this. The term ‘political Zionism’ also enables the reader to focus on the fact that certain people desire a World Empire, a New World Order and full globalisation. Thus within Zionism there is this hidden agenda, which is unknown to the many. It acts as a ‘front’ for this dark ambition, as do other belief systems and ideologies, some of which we are yet to study. Adding the word ‘political’ is not ideal, but I use it only as a means to an end, so that the reader knows what I mean when using it. Many ‘Christian Zionists’ will be bothered by the details herein; hence the importance of my term.

THE ROTHSCHILDS AND THE ILLUMINATI CONNECTION

There are plenty of sources which claim that the aforementioned Mayer Amschel Rothschild became increasingly wealthy, and that it was his money which funded The Bavarian Illuminati, which I referred to earlier. Indeed so plentiful are the independent unrelated sources about the Rothschilds, that one must conclude that there is something amiss with this family. One author claims that it was Rothschild who had drawn up the plans for The Illuminati organisation as far back as 1770, and Gary Kah in his book ‘En route to Global Occupation’ also details the Rothschilds’ financial backing for them. Even Rabbi Marvin Antelman has argued for direct Rothschild involvement, along with Adam Weishaupt’s role.

Bearing in mind our knowledge about the Bavarian Illuminati, this means that Rothschild had managed to work his monetary schemes, not just within Cabbalist circles, but also within illuminised Freemasonry, because The Bavarian Illuminati had infiltrated Freemasonry at that time; specifically through the Masonic conference of Wilhelmsbad. In fact according to two other sources, this meeting was at Mayer Amschel Rothschild’s castle in that town.

By this time, the Rothschilds had also managed to financially influence a number of governments in Europe too, through their increasing banking power and loans to various governments. This pattern has been repeatedly followed by the Rothschild dynasty; today they have incredible wealth and power. Interestingly eminent British historian Nesta Webster, also independently associates Mayer Rothschild with the Bavarian Illuminati. Springmeier is more nuanced with his treatment of the Rothschild support of the Bavarian Illuminati, although he does contend that by 1782 such was a possibility.

This is where our previous study of Cabbalism is now critical. A case has been made which claims that it was Rothschild, Weishaupt and another radical Jewish Cabbalist, Jakob Frank, who put The Bavarian Illuminati together. Frankism, as previously demonstrated, is historically linked to the Sabbatian (Sabbatism) movement – both being highly Cabbalistic and messianic. In fact Shabbetai Zevi was a self proclaimed Cabbalist messiah. Reverend John Torell of the ‘European-American Evangelistic Crusades’, who writes extensively upon these subject matters, has written an excellent brief history with regard to these developments. In a private e-mail to me Torell has assured me of the impeccable nature of his sources. Torell concludes: ‘with these three men the stage was set to ignite a hell fire that would forever bring changes to the world... Mayer Amschel financed Adam Weishaupt and Jakob Frank laid the cabbalistic theological foundation for the Order of the Illuminati.’

It is likely that the Rothschilds were representative of a wider Cabbalist Jewish banking syndicate as well, heading up their interests. Torell states further that, ‘in order to be able to take control of the world, establish Jerusalem as the capital of the world, setup a messiah, who would rule as the king of Israel... they had to first build a very strong power base.

If they could gain control over the world’s resources, including trade and finances, no nation or group of people would be able to resist them’. Thus with the creation of The Illuminati, along with its infiltration of Freemasonry at the highest degrees, it meant that a wave of transformation had begun, which would culminate in huge changes for the political and economic climate of the world thereafter.

As far as Zionism and the Star of David are concerned, the infamous Professor Scholem expressed reservation at the idea that the first Zionists used the symbol with Cabbalistic and messianic intent. However he does openly admit that opponents of Zionism at that time ‘again and again badgered the Zionists about their alleged pseudo-Messianism and compared their venture to that of the Sabbatians’. That is a very interesting statement! Based on the research I have conducted, I find it virtually impossible to conclude that none of the Zionists arguing for the use of this symbol, did not want a Cabbalist messiah or knew of the Cabbalistic and messianic meaning embedded within it! The Cabbalist Jews within early Zionism were intelligent people and knew exactly what the hexagram meant, and what they were doing by using it. Perhaps Scholem did not want to admit too much?
THE ROTHSCHILD AND FREEMASONRY

Relevantly Barry Chamish, a Jewish author and journalist, has written a number of books and articles, a few of which refer to the power of Freemasonry at work within Israel. Chamish also has a grave fear and that is, he fears that Israel will become a multinational land run by a team ‘that includes the Vatican’. As you will read later in my Catholic chapter, this claim is not without substance. Quoting from his article ‘British Freemasonry covets Israel’:

‘Without British Freemasonry there would be no modern state of Israel. In the 1860s, the British-Israelite movement was initiated from within Freemasonry. Its goal was to establish a Jewish-Masonic state in the Turkish province of Palestine. Of course, that would mean dealing with the Turks at some point down the line, but first the country would have to be repopulated with Jews... Initially, British Jewish Masonic families like the Rothschilds and Montefiores provided the capital to build the infrastructure for the anticipated wave of immigration.’

It is worth noting that the evidence proves that a number of Rothschilds were also Freemasons, not just Cabbalists. Freemason William Denslow, who wrote the reference book ‘10,000 Famous Freemasons’, refers to a few Rothschilds who were known to be Freemasons, and that they were of the highest degrees.

Fritz Springmeier also claims that:

‘Several of the Rothschilds ancestors have been rabbis, and the early occultism of the family before they became Rothschilds is believed to have been in the form of Jewish Cabbalism, Sabbatism and Franksim. The House of Rothschild practises Gnostic-Satanism with a strong emphasis on Babylonian magic... According to their own secret family genealogy, which is recorded in a sacred secret book, the Rothschilds are descended from Nimrod, the great Babylonian warrior ruler’. My italics for emphasis.

TAKING STOCK

We have already understood how Cabbalism has ambitions for perfecting the world and we have also grasped how The Bavarian Illuminati undoubtedly desired the same. We have also detailed their Babylonian ambition, of building a world independent from the one true God. We know that they infiltrated the highest ranks of Freemasonry, and thus illuminised Freemasonry along with The Illuminati proper, also desires a ‘World Empire’. But now we have the powerful Rothschild family, some of whom are members of the present day Illuminati, are Cabbalists, the funders of the original Bavarian Illuminati, as well as being associated with the highest ranks of Freemasonry, all inter-relating together. The Rothschilds also adopted the Cabbalist Star of David as their personal symbol, their name actually being based upon it, and this Star also appears within Freemasonry.

The Star is at the heart of Israel, and the Balfour Declaration was written to Lord Rothschild. Israel, as we know, is where the Cabbalist god has formed his kingdom (malkuth) through the Jews (Shekinah) returning to that land. Cabbalism also has desires for a messiah, as well as an ambition for a Third Temple. These parallels cannot be by chance! They will also have increasing importance for the end times prophetic picture that this book investigates. Moreover, it is the Rothschilds in particular, who have been a significant influence behind many globalisation, New World Order orientated organisations, central banks and the world economy. I will detail this soon.

The following fact is very important - Israel, political Zionism and certain powerful people within these circles, and many of the global organisations and movements, essentially act as a ‘front’ for the Illuminati’s hidden agenda. Thus the Rothschilds are like a common denominator between all these things.
THE ILLUMINATI – BROADER THAN JEWRY

It ought to be noted that even though Jewish Cabbalism was a significant factor at work in the formation of The Bavarian Illuminati, the reader ought not to interpret this to mean that it was solely Jewish in its outworking. After all there have been many men in history past who had designs for world domination who were not Jewish at all! The facts make it quite clear that many Gentiles became illuminists as the original Illuminati grew; affecting many individuals and creating circles of influence. The Rothschilds and political Zionism are just one aspect of the agenda which is moving towards world government, although a highly important one. A World Empire is a massive multifaceted machine in its outworking, and in the personnel required.

A very good example of this is that The Rothschilds are also closely allied with the non-Jewish American Illuminati bloodline - The Rockefellers. This bloodline also has great power and similar influence, being desirous of world government, empire and domination. America plays a significant factor in this global domination, as recent world events and details have shown. With America and Israel being so closely allied, we can appreciate how these two countries together, are pushing forwards globalisation and the New World Order, with Israel becoming an increasingly important part of this. After all, Jerusalem will be at the centre of world politics and economics in the end days, with the Beast ruling from that country and its city, along with the False Prophet in support. As already discussed, Jerusalem is a city built on seven hills and as the final ‘Babylon’ it will have control over the ‘kings of the earth’, Revelation 17v18. Jerusalem will be the fount from which the ultimate form of the New World Order, its world government and world system, will one day emerge and be focussed.

The Rothschilds are also directly linked with other oligarchic families and persons, Jewish and Gentile, who have influenced the globalisation, New World Order ambitions, that dominate today. These other elitist families have significant roles too. It is also worth noting that any notion that The Illuminati have long since disappeared, a view which, in my opinion, is indefensible bearing in mind our analysis, is now dealt a further blow. The simple fact is this - the Rothschilds still exist to this day. They are the funders of the original Illuminati and through them modern illuminism persists, as well as through other powerful groups, lineages and persons. They are living proof that the global elite exist.

THE ROTHSCHILDS – MONEY AND POWER

In the early eighteen hundreds, The Rothschilds funded both sides of the Napoleon War; with Napoleon finally being defeated by the Duke of Wellington at the Battle of Waterloo. Later they funded both sides of World War I, lending money to the governments with interest, so that they, the Rothschilds, had more money after those wars. No matter who won the war, the Rothschilds and other Jewish bankers won financially, as well as increasing their power over various governments. New World Order specialist, Alex Jones, in his film ‘End Game’, also details this fact. These claims are also supported by Dr Mike Coffman who was once employed by the American government, who appears as an ‘authority’ in Jones’ film. Back in 1790, Mayer Amschel Rothschild had already said: ‘Let me issue and control a nation’s money and I care not who writes its laws’.

It seems as though Rothschild ambitions came true - they have significant control and influence over international money. Besides, the aforementioned Zionist Theodor Herzl once wrote, with regard to Jewish influence in the world: ‘When we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of all revolutionary parties; at the same time, when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse’. 488

In the excellent yet detailed and cross referenced work by EC Knuth, which examines the finances of the British Empire and the lives lost and the wars fought in order to maintain it, we once again find Rothschild involvement. He also details the American linkages with this, referring to the involvement of Rockefeller, JP Morgan and the like. Knuth details the Empire’s participation with the great crash of the American Market in 1929, over-extended inflation, the removal of and the return of gold into the American system and in each case concludes that it ‘seems beyond question’ that the politics of the Empire were involved. However he has a more absolute conclusion with regard to the following:

‘the fact that the House of Rothschild made its money in the great crashes of history and the great wars of history, the very periods when others lost their money, IS beyond question.’ 489 (Emphasis in the original).

By the time the 20th century began, what with the Rothschilds’ wealth from their banking, the opium trade via the Sassoon bloodline, and the gold mines in South Africa through Cecil Rhodes, oil and so forth, they were said to control over half the wealth of the world. They were also, over time, entrusted with the bulk of the Vatican’s wealth, with the Pope personally asking to borrow money from them. 490 491 492 Indeed according to Frederic Morton in his book nominated for a National Award, ‘The Rothschilds - a family portrait’, by 1850 the Rothschilds collectively had a fortune of 400 million pounds. To put that into perspective, Queen Victoria only had an estimated 5 million pounds! Morton wrote: ‘a shopping spree involving almost all of her Majesty’s entire worth could be managed by one family branch effortlessly, at a moment’s notice’. 493 Indeed his book’s introductory comments state that they ‘conquered the world more thoroughly, more cunningly and much more lastingly than all the Caesars before or all the Hitlers after them’. The Annual Encyclopaedia of 1868 stated that the French Jacob Rothschild alone, (also known as Baron James de Rothschild), died with a fortune estimated at over $300,000,000. 494 Indeed by 1913 it is estimated that the Rothschilds’ entire fortune was $2billion. 495 It is pertinent to note that through their lending of money to governments during World War I, it is estimated that the Rothschilds made more than £100billion. 496 According to notable historian and Professor at Harvard University, Niall Ferguson:

‘For most of the nineteenth century, N M Rothschild was part of the biggest bank in the world which dominated the international bond market. For a contemporary equivalent, one has to imagine a merger between Merrill Lynch, Morgan Stanley, J P Morgan and probably Goldman Sachs too — as well, perhaps, as the International Monetary Fund, given the nineteen-century Rothschild’s role in stabilising the finances of numerous governments’. 497

Ferguson, bearing in mind his sympathetic writing of the Rothschilds, concludes that as far as wealth is concerned, there is no one alive today who has the equivalent wealth that the Rothschilds had, in the period of the mid-eighteen hundreds to early nineteenth century! 498

Many believe that the Rothschilds have dwindled in wealth and power in recent years, but I suggest to you that they are world-class business men, with profound business linkages and a history of immense wealth stemming back to the mid-1700s. It is highly unlikely that they have dwindled at all. They may no longer be the financiers to kings, but that does not mean they are benign. The Sunday Times Rich List of 2010 puts the present Lord Jacob Rothschild at a mere 174th place, with an estimated fortune of £330 million.499 How can it be that this man who is at the head of the House of Rothschild is worth only about the same as one of his late family members of over 140 years ago? This cannot be! In contrast to the Rich List, The Daily Mail reported in October 2009 that Jacob Rothschild was worth £1.5billion. So there is even a significant difference between these recent Press figures. I suggest that no one really knows the wealth of the Rothschilds, or that of the Rockefellers and other rich elite families. (My analysis of the 2011 Rich List has the same conclusion).
To demonstrate my point I accessed the online company ‘Measuring Worth’, and by using their own calculative methodology for ‘relative Gross Domestic Product’, I discovered that $300,000,000 is now worth $525billion! The 1913 figure of $2billion calculates to $728billion! These are extraordinary sums of money! So one Rothschild from 1868 should now be worth $525billion, yet the mainstream press concludes that the present Lord Rothschild is only worth £330million. Even the very worst of investors would have fared better! To conclude otherwise would be ridiculous in the extreme. I wonder how much the entire House of Rothschild is truly worth today.

I believe that the overt wealth of the Rothschilds and others has been secretly hidden away, tied in with hidden business linkages, banking consortiums and front companies, so that no one can actually calculate their true wealth, nor more importantly, their influence. Maybe it is because of the increasing exposures about the Rothschilds in recent decades, that they have adopted a highly hidden methodology for their wealth and influence. Indeed an authoritative writer of some of the books I have used as part of my research, in a private e-mail to me, confirmed that: ‘the power of the Rothschild family has not diminished. On the contrary it is far greater today than it was at the time of their ascendency’. I trust his judgment.

It is worth noting that the aforementioned Lord Jacob Rothschild was good friends with the late Princess Diana, and also worked for Morgan Stanley for a while; the infamous company set up by JP Morgan. He is also good friends and business partner with Henry Kissinger and knows Alan Greenspan who was Chairman of the Federal Reserve. These facts will prove to be of interest later. He has even attended football matches with the Chelsea owner, who, at the time of writing, is the Jewish billionaire Roman Abramovich. Nat (Nathan) Rothschild, son of the aforementioned Jacob Rothschild, who, having spent his life as a ‘playboy’ for a while, recently decided to enter into the realm of business, and in just 5 years is now estimated to be a billionaire, according to a New York Times report from 2007. He is also trying to set up a brand new company ‘in the global metals, mining and resources sector’ worth billions.

Historically the Rothschilds have always shown great interest in mining. Relevantly the aforementioned 2010 Rich List placed Nathan lower than his father. However, Rothschild wealth is not the only factor – it is about their influence and connections too...

GLOBAL BANKING, CENTRAL BANKS AND BANKING

Economy is a crucial part of globalisation, and therefore banks and central banks will play a distinctly important role within it. In England our central bank is, of course, ‘The Bank of England’. The Bank uses a number of symbols, one of which appears to be the Greek goddess of reason, Athena. Mervyn King is, at the time of writing, the Governor of this institution and has recently argued, according to the Daily Telegraph, that the G20 and the International Monetary Fund should merge together to aid financial recovery, during the ongoing financial crisis. King was Professor at the Fabian Society founded ‘London School of Economics’. I will examine ‘Fabianism’ in due course. Apparently The Bank may have been founded by some Jews back in 1694, but its first Governor was William Paterson. According to the respected author, the late Eustace Mullins, originally the Bank was set up under certain stockholders. In some very rare information we are informed that:

‘An early description of the Bank of England stated it was “A society of about 1330 persons, including the King and Queen of England, who had 10,000 pounds of stock, the Duke of Leeds, Duke of Devonshire, Earl of Pembroke and the Earl of Bradford”.’ 507

From what I understand the Bank of England is tightly interwoven between The Crown and Parliament, with historical links to the British Empire through the British East India Company based on the ‘Babylonian fractional reserve system’. 508 ‘Fractional reserve’ is the standard banking system in the world today.

In 1946 the Bank of England was ‘nationalised’ and so it is now owned by the British taxpayer. The Rothschilds have always had interest in the Bank of England, so it is important to note that through their influence in 1844 the ‘Bank Charter Act’ was formed and this gave the Bank ‘monopoly on the production of Sterling and control of Britain’s money supply’ 509 Tony Blair and Gordon Brown gave full independence ‘from political control’ to the bank, 4 days after Tony Blair came to power in 1997, as an article from The Times makes clear. 510 511 Since the government enacted the ‘1998 Bank of England Act, (it) gave the Bank’s Court of Directors complete independence with regard to monetary policy’. 512

Even though the Rothschilds do not own the Bank of England, their influence through such decisions as the above, means that we have a worse situation than if the bank was solely privately owned. What we have is:

‘a “nationally owned” institution which has the monopoly of the production of the national currency, and has independent control of the country’s monetary policy, in the hands of a Court of Board Directors who serve the private banking system as they have since the Bank was established’. 513

At the time of writing, a new interim financial policy committee has been created at the Bank of England. According to BBC News on June 13th 2011, it will be ‘a super committee with unprecedented powers... over banks, The City and the Economy’. It has been given ‘sweeping new powers’. Interestingly the Communist Manifesto also stipulates the need for a Central Bank. Vladimir Lenin is also on record for stating: ‘The establishment of a central bank is 90% of communising a nation’. 514 Relevantly, Alfred de Rothschild was director of the Bank of England until 1889, a post he held for 20 years. He also represented the British Government at the International Monetary conference in 1892. Leopold David de Rothschild was also a director at the Bank between 1970 and 1983. It was N M Rothschild who averted a liquidity crisis at the Bank in the 1820s by supplying it with enough coinage. The late Baron Edward George, stepped down from Governor of the Bank of England in 2003, and started a new career on the board at N M Rothschild. 515 During George’s career he had a number of secondments including The Bank of International Settlements and The International Monetary Fund. More recently the Rothschilds have managed to sign a contract with the Bank of China: ‘a long-term strategic investment and business cooperation agreement covering private banking and asset management businesses in their respective domestic markets and other strategic geographies’.

In a similar way to The Bank of England, the Central Bank of America, The Federal Reserve, whose chairman at the time of writing is Dr Ben S. Bernanke, can set interest rates without permission from the government, as well as having a separate pool of foreign exchange rates. The Bank of Japan was also granted similar powers at this time and the Bundesbank (the German Federal Bank) and the European Central Bank, have all been granted similar independent controls. Notably the European Central Bank also has shareholders and is thus ‘under the domination of Germany’s banking giants – the Deutsche and Dresdner banks (now merged into a single conglomerate), together with a handful of European banks and financial institutions’.

Professor of Economics at the University of Ottawa, Michel Chossudovsky, in his book ‘The Globalisation of Poverty and the New World Order’, makes this clear by adding that ‘central banks have become independent and shielded from political influence’ in most of the OECD (Organisation for Economic and Co-operation and Development) countries. Further, ‘monetary policy no longer exists as a means of State intervention; it largely belongs to the realm of private banking’.

It may interest the reader to know that in March 2007 the Bank of England issued a new £20 note. Upon the note there are many triangular-like designs, but I am sure that there is a ‘Star of David’ at the centre of the note. It is quite concealed but the lowest point of the Star touches the top of the picture of The Bank of England, which has also been printed on the note.

There is a floral-like emblem in the centre of the Star. It could be there by chance of course, but it makes one wonder. Due to the intense research I have made for this book, I have become more aware of the usage of symbolism, such as the dominance of the triangle. There are other examples which I could give, within the realm of Banking for instance, but sadly space will not permit.
ROTHSCHILD DOMINANCE

Bearing in mind our information about the Rothschilds' involvement and association with the Bank of England, a number of writers have written some additional comments about their connection to the British economy and The Bank. According to Hitchcock, at the time of Napoleon's defeat, the Rothschilds had:

‘complete control of the British economy, now the undisputed financial centre of the world… and forces the British to set up a new Bank of England under the control of Nathan Mayer Rothschild’. 519 520

Because of this the Rothschilds made a boastful comment, due to the massive wealth and influence they had accumulated. Baron Nathan Mayer Rothschild said:

‘I care not what puppet is placed upon the throne of England to rule the Empire on which the sun never sets. The man who controls Britain’s money supply controls the British Empire, and I control the British money supply’. 521 522

According to Springmeier, ‘by 1815, Nathan controlled England’s finance’. 523 Of course it was Nathan Mayer Rothschild who set up the aforementioned N M Rothschild investment banking giant in London in 1811, now with at least 40 offices, all over the world, dealing in billions of pounds. In the highly reputable “Who’s Who”, which has been published for over 160 years, a book which analyses people who have significantly contributed to society, there are also some other relevant facts. In the Rothschild section you can read for yourself how significant this family has been, and in fact only a few Rothschilds are listed compared to the numbers there are and have been. As far as Nathan Rothschild is concerned, his involvement and chairing of companies during his period was numerous. He truly had incredible influence.

One of the writers I will refer to in this book is the late Joan Veon. Joan Veon was an independent international reporter and had interviewed and queried the world’s movers and shakers – Presidents, Prime Ministers, key eminent economists, Chief Executive Officers (CEOs), and leaders in the United Nations, from the Secretary-General downwards. In my opinion she is an expert on matters pertaining to the United Nations. Some more facts about her career are under this endnote. 524 Essentially her work supports many of the arguments in this book about globalisation, globalist persons, organisations and the New World Order, including the Rothschilds as a component within this. 525

Please stop and think about what this means. If these men, their many aides from all over the world, and other powerful families and persons, have influence over most of the world's money, then they can control all of us! Full globalisation will happen if the world’s money is controlled and influenced by such people; it is a logical step. We have only just witnessed the fall of The Northern Rock Building Society in Britain because of the American economy, not to mention its effects on other countries around the world. This is globalisation! The fall of Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae, the recent takeover of Halifax Bank of Scotland (HBOS) by Lloydsibs creating a banking Behemoth, nicknamed by some as the ‘Bank of Britain’ according to the Daily Mail, are other examples. This simply puts more and more power into fewer and fewer hands. It will serve the illuminist agenda. Under this endnote another possible correlation can be made through HBOS and the Rothschild company St. James’ Place. 526 Other banking concerns would be that the Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS) has also made massive losses. Further examples could be given. 527 How is this possible under the watch of the highest and most skilled businessmen in our world? Indeed RBS along with Santander, Allied Irish Bank, Société Générale and others, all come under the Inter Alpha Group, managed by Jacob Rothschild - companies that asset strip others. 528
THE ROTHSCILD-SOROS CONNECTION

Through St. James’ Place and other Rothschild companies, there is a direct link with the Jewish stock market speculator, the very wealthy and powerful George Soros. He was also trained at the aforementioned Fabian founded London School of Economics. Seth Soros also funded Barack Obama’s presidential campaign, and influences his policy making through ‘The Centre for American Progress’. I believe that Soros acts as a kind of ‘front man’ for the Rothschilds, and because of that association we can appreciate how the Rothschilds also had influence over Obama’s campaign and rise to Presidency. According to the American-German historian and economic researcher William Engdahl:

‘Soros speculates on the world’s financial markets via his secret off-shore company Quantum Fund NV, a private investment fund that handles a portfolio of four to seven billion US$ for several “clients”. The Quantum Fund is registered in the tax haven of the Netherlands Antilles in the Caribbean. In order to evade control of his financial activities by the U.S. administration not a single U.S. citizen sits on the board of Quantum. Its directors are a curious mixture of Swiss and Italian financiers... Soros has been identified as a front man of the Anglo-French Rothschild banking group. Understandably neither he nor the Rothschilds want this important fact to be public, so the tight links to his friends in the London ‘City’, in the British foreign ministry, in the state of Israel and to his mighty friends in the American Establishment would stay concealed... Soros’ connection to the ultra-secret international finance circles of the Rothschilds is not just an ordinary or accidental banking connection. The extraordinary success Soros has on the high-risk financial markets cannot simply be explained with “gambler's luck”.

Soros is also linked with George Bush Senior through his Carlyle Group; a powerful organisation and international weapons dealer. He also had direct linkages with the billionaire the late Sir James Goldsmith. Interestingly his son Zac Goldsmith has just got divorced and has been spotted in recent times, paying regular visits to his sister in law Alice Rothschild - his brother Ben is married to Kate Rothschild. Zac is also Conservative MP for Richmond Park, knows David Cameron (the Tory leader and Prime Minister of the Coalition government), and is, at the time of writing, his environmental adviser.

It is worth noting that John McCain who ran for President against Obama, who expressed ease in support of bombing Iran, was, according to the Washington Post, invited to have lunch with Jacob and Nathaniel Rothschild at a fundraising event at Spencer House, St. James’ Place, in London, during his campaign. It seems to me that the Rothschilds can indirectly fund and/or support both sides of a given Party, if they wish, via their agents and business linkages.

THE GLOBAL CRISIS

With the global financial economic crisis being what it is, it is important to note that the Rothschilds have spoken out in terms completely in keeping with what I have argued thus far. The French Baron David René de Rothschild and the British Evelyn Rothschild have both said that the outworking of this crisis will be ‘global governance’, with Evelyn voicing high regard for Gordon Brown’s dealings with the crisis at the G20 meetings and the like. David René de Rothschild just happened to turn up at the fundraising meeting in Qatar which Gordon Brown created to aid world financial recovery. Incidentally this man is the Rothschild who currently heads up the merger between the French and English Rothschild firms, which occurred in 2003 after Evelyn Rothschild retired from N M Rothschild, London.
Whilst many, many companies are suffering under the weight of the Global Financial Crisis, The Daily Mail reported on 20th November 2008, that Rothschild Continuation Holdings, (the main holding company for the Rothschilds since 2003, along with its parent company Concordia AV), found its profits were up by over 30%. The report also detailed that the Rothschild’s sold a 7.5% stake of its company to Rabobank one of Holland’s largest financial institutions, which has offices all over the world. The only other company that has had investment in a Rothschild group is Jardine Matheson, which is also highly influential globally. I very much doubt that the House of Rothschild would allow anyone to invest within them, who would not support their overall agenda, directly or indirectly. The logos of these two companies are also interesting, as this endnote details. 539

Finally, it is also worth noting that Lord Victor Rothschild played an important role within British Intelligence through organisations such as MI-5. He was also part of the Communist Society at Cambridge, ‘The Apostles Club’, which contained the traitor and Soviet Agent Kim Philby and others. 540 541 The MI-5 logo used between the 1950s and 70s contains an All Seeing Eye and a number of triangles. Their logo, at the time of writing, uses several pentagrams (a five pointed star inside a circle), within its construct. They are more noticeable when looked at from a distance. One other interesting logo is from the ‘LCF Rothschild Group’, the Chairman of which at the time of writing is Baron Benjamin de Rothschild. It is very much like an ‘All Seeing Eye’, within their regular 5 arrows design. It also acts as a dot within a circle, which has associations to fertility symbols.

CENTRAL BANKING AND THE LONDON CONNECTION

‘The Secrets of the Federal Reserve’ by Eustace Mullins is a fascinating book. It is an excellent piece of writing, fully documented and highly detailed, with Mullins having spent intense hours at the Library of Congress for his research. It has even been signed by prominent Americans, such as Wright Patman at the House of Representatives, giving the book distinct credibility. Mullins also provides a copy of the signatures of the document in 1913 that instigated the formation of the Federal Reserve - one of the signatories being President Woodrow Wilson. In his ‘Foreword’, Mullins admits that he had serious problems getting his work published, and that in Germany his book was the only book since World War II to be burned. Ten thousand copies of it were destroyed under orders from the US government. I suggest that this was done because the facts the book contained were not what those ‘in power’ wanted the public to know. 542 Within its covers we once again find facts which concur with what I have written.

Mullins’ book demonstrates that there are distinct British economic connections which are which are vital to the Federal Reserve System – the central bank of America. For example, many are unaware that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in America is actually directly linked with the City of London investment or merchant banks and The Bank of England. The Federal Reserve is actually a private company, in the hands of the private bankers. 543 It began in America, in 1913, when the majority of those who opposed a central bank had already gone home for Christmas. On December 24th at 11:45 p.m. greedy politicians pushing for a central bank garnered enough votes to pass the Act. Through this, America has effectively become a financial colony of Britain.

I cannot go into the explicit details of Mullins’ book - space will not permit. But fundamentally those involved with crafting the details of the Federal Reserve from 1910 onwards at Jekyll Island where they met, are all high powered individuals with profound business linkages. Names such as the Davisons, the Harrimans, JP Morgan and the Jewish Warburgs, (who are associated with the banking house of Kuhn, Loeb) are all part of the origins of the Federal Reserve. Woodrow Wilson, who later became President and Edward Mandel House, his Foreign Policy Adviser, also gave support to this venture. A number of these persons have also been associated with Freemasonry and certain secret societies. The principal stockholders of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York were originally: ‘The National City Bank’, ‘First National Bank’ and ‘National Bank of Commerce’.

As one analyses these three stockholders we discover linkages with the Astor family; one of Springmeier’s important bloodlines. Professor Carroll Quigley, (late mentor of former President of the USA, Bill Clinton), also demonstrates the Astor connection within the world of international banking.

The Rockefellers are also linked into this, because in the late eighteen hundreds they had married into the Stillman family which had British banking connections. The Rothschilds had early connections into America through August Belmont (Schoenberg), from about 1837 onwards, but it was through JP Morgan that things truly developed, because Morgan had massive influence over two of these stockholding banks. JP Morgan essentially acted as a Rothschilds’ ‘agent’ and by 1899 Morgan had been appointed as the head representative of the Rothschilds interests in the United States, creating a greater association between the House of Rothschild and other banking companies, including the Warburgs. Many years ago Carola Warburg married Walter Nathan Rothschild, and so the Rothschild connection between the Warburgs, the Morgans and the Federal Reserve is clear, not to mention their relationship with the Rockefellers too. It is worth noting that Paul Warburg has also been a Governor of the Federal Reserve Board of Governors and then later he became the director of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) when it was founded in 1921. Some important details about CFR will soon be provided.

More recently, Paul Volcker, a name you are likely to be familiar with, was chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, and he was chosen and carefully selected through these international banking families, as no ‘member of the international banking families has personally served on the Board of Governors’, since 1933. In fact Volcker has said in the past ‘a global economy requires a global currency’. When Volcker left the Federal Reserve in 1987, he ‘became chairman of the prominent New York investment banking firm, J. Rothschild, Wolfensohn & Co’ Dr Ben Bernanke is its chairman, at the time of writing, having succeeded Alan Greenspan who was the successor to Volcker. I believe that all three of these men are of Jewish descent.

When Mullins published his book in 1983, he checked the shareholders of the Federal Reserve and concluded that ‘a few families, related by blood, marriage, or business interests, still control the New York City banks, which, in turn, hold the controlling stock of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York’. I have cross referenced this with a source from 1994, and the holders are still the same. I doubt anything has changed since.

This information is staggering and it demonstrates how so few have power, compared with the world’s population. In the case of the Federal Reserve, these powerful people have a ‘London Connection’, to use Mullins’ term. No wonder that globalisation exists because it has stemmed from, and is empowered by, such powerful persons based in the most influential countries, through the world’s most dominant central banks. The dollar at this time is a massive worldwide currency. It is the world’s reserve currency, and because it is in the hands of the private banking industry, then the choices made by these banks and its persons, affects the world. Earlier we referred to the wealth of the Rothschilds, but now we can appreciate that their ‘wealth’ is not just monetary. It is about hidden linkages and associations too. Other examples are under this endnote.
Mullins also details that Mayer Amschel Bauer (Rothschild) met with 12 influential wealthy men in 1773, and his ambition was to get them to agree to pool all of their resources together ‘to win ultimate control of the wealth, natural resources, and manpower of the entire world’. To do this Rothschild had thought up a revolutionary plan which is listed by Mullins under fourteen points, which are disturbing reading. The last point reads: ‘panics and financial depressions would ultimately result in World Government, a new order of one world government’. 554 The details of those fourteen points are thoroughly in keeping with the spirit of Illuminism under Weishaupt, that I detailed earlier.

American Republican Congressman, Dr Ron Paul, is desperate to rid America of its centralised bank, just as President Andrew Jackson had done before him. The reason why is because he understands and disagrees with the control it has over America and of course how it outworks in the world economy. According to the ‘Dallas Morning News’ Ron Paul said, with regard to the recent monetary crises:

‘I would enjoy being the next president to get rid of our central bank’, he told supporters and blamed the Federal Reserve for this ‘terrible crisis’. He added that he would cure the economic crisis by ending the ‘hyper-expensive, hyper-dangerous empire all around the globe’. (My italics). 555

When a Congressman is saying these things, we really ought to take notice. This man is in the higher echelons of American politics, not a ‘conspiracist’, although there is direct evidence that he is part of Lambda Chi Alpha, an organisation with a distinct Masonic association. 556

CENTRAL BANKS – THE WORLDWIDE NETWORK

A number of writers claim that The Rothschilds have control and influence over the central banks in nearly every country of the world, except for five of them - Libya, North Korea, Sudan, Cuba and Iran being the exceptions. Apparently there were 7 countries in this position until Iraq and Afghanistan were invaded, so they claim! Interestingly all these countries were part of George Bush’s ‘Axis of Evil’ or ‘rogue nations’. 557 558 Indeed with Iran and Libya regularly in the News at the time of writing, this may be significant.

I suggest that it is better to think in terms of a deeply intricate ‘web’ of economic linkages between the main economic players of the world, which can be traced back to the Rothschilds in some form. It is about indirect associations, via one person to another to another to another. In Mullins’ work with regard to the Rothschilds, much study is needed to peel back the layers to expose these indirect and hidden linkages, between the Federal Reserve and the London banking cartel. Maybe this pattern is repeated within the economies of other countries in the world? If so we can appreciate how linkages back to the Rothschilds, the Western globalist central banks in general, internationalist monetary organisations and the Cabbalist banking consortium, is possible.

The Rothschilds do have many agents and powerful people sympathetic to the global agenda. All it takes is for the heads of the central banks in the main countries of the world, and other organisations, to be supportive of this, and the web of control can be made. It would be an interesting study for individuals in other parts of the world to look into this with respect to the central bank of the country where they live. Let us not forget one of my earlier quotations. Mayer Rothschild once said: ‘Let me issue and control a nation’s money and I care not who writes its laws’. To be in that position is true power – world power!
THE BIS AND IMF – ROTHSCILD CONNECTIONS?

There is some evidence that the Rothschilds were involved with the founding of the ‘Bank for International Settlements’ (BIS) in Switzerland, Basel, in 1930, through two of their agents - Charles Dawes and Owen Young. The Dawes Plan, which was superseded by the Young Plan, is what gave way to the creation of BIS. The BIS is like a ‘central bank for central banks’. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank deal with governments; but the BIS only deal with central banks. All its meetings are held in secret, which all the top central bankers from all over the world attend. 559 As far as I am aware BIS has governmental immunity, pays no taxes, and has its own private police force. One can peruse some of its official records relating to business and operational activities, but only those over thirty years of age. The BIS building has been called ‘The Tower of Basel’! Joan Veon has recently written an article entitled ‘The Bank for International Settlements calls for Global Currency’, and concludes that: ‘The BIS recommends what several academics have suggested by way of establishing a single international currency or perhaps moving to regional currency’. 560 Both Veon and the authority, Professor of history Carroll Quigley in his massive work ‘Tragedy and Hope’, have important work relating to this field. 561 562

There is clear evidence that the International Monetary Fund has essentially shaped populations and their development, by deeply affecting their economies. In a sense they have practised what is essentially ‘eugenics’; a field related to Darwinism, through their loaning of money to a number of countries. Two of these are Tanzania and Ecuador. 563 The details of what has happened to these countries are not pleasant. This view is fully supported by Professor of Economics at the University of Ottawa, the aforementioned Michel Chossudovsky, author of ‘The Globalisation of Poverty and the New World Order’, who provides many more examples.

GLOBAL CRISSES

With regard to Iraq and Afghanistan and their troubles being directly based on the outworking of 7/7 and 9/11, I am sure that deeper globalisation will occur through those conflicts, as the West try to deal with the Islamic issue. I am sure that oil is part of the Iraqi issue as well, not to mention that they have suddenly discovered that the minerals in Afghanistan are worth at least a trillion dollars! Perhaps they knew all along? There are many world issues that aid globalisation - ‘Climate Change’ and the environmental concerns being some of them. It seems to me that the environmental and ecological issues we experience, whether real, imagined or somewhere in between, can be ‘used’ as a device by the powerful in order to persuade us to embrace further forms of globalisation at every level. The recent attempts at the United Nations Copenhagen Conference certainly demonstrate this, as 192 countries met to help solve certain global ecological issues.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AND THE UNITED NATIONS

If the Rothschilds are supportive of a global economy, which seems abundantly clear to me, then we should not be surprised to find their influence in other related areas. Relevantly then, they were significantly involved with the formation of The League of Nations (1919-1920) which later became the United Nations (1945), after the Second World War. The Jewish writer, Dr Henry Makow, who has extensively studied the Rothschilds and globalisation, also gives support to this. He, along with other important writers, inform us that the League of Nations was created by involving President Woodrow Wilson and Edward Mandel House, Woodrow’s chief advisor. The apparent object of the creation of the League of Nations and The United Nations, was to bring all nations together to stop all future wars, which was really a ‘cover’ or ‘front’ to bring all nations together to aid their globalisation, New World Order, World Empire process. The fact is without those world wars, the nations of the world would never have united in the way they have. At this present time the United Nations Headquarters is located on a 18-acre site on the East side of Manhattan. It is built on an international zone belonging to all Member States, which in itself is a symbolic way of stating their globalised intent. New Ageism is rife within this organisation too, but I will detail this in a later chapter. Edith Starr Miller also made a very worthwhile comment with reference to the League of Nations and its political Zionist background. She wrote:

‘Studying the League of Nations under its different aspects we are led to draw the logical conclusion that it is a Judeo-Masonic achievement. As the embryonic future World Government... the League of Nations is at present concerned with two schemes wherewith it will eventually be enabled to enforce its dictates... an international army and an air force, the other the International Bank which is already aiming at the creation and circulation of an international universal money...’

She penned these words in 1933! The insightful predictions she made have come true, or are coming true by degrees. For example, there are indeed plans and ambitions for ‘international universal money’ and one could argue that the United Nations Peace Keeping force is a de facto international army.

THE EUROPEAN UNION

It is important to note that Europe is intricately linked into the United Nations, and is one of the ‘Regions’ that the world is divided into, as far as the UN’s thinking and planning is concerned. Is there any evidence of Rothschild involvement within Europe? One particular piece of information which irrefutably demonstrates a connection is from Ashley Mote, former Member of the European Parliament for South East England. He expressed concern with regard to a Global Security Fund and its Rothschild connection.

‘Mr President, I wish to draw your attention to the Global Security Fund, set up in the early 1990s under the auspices of Jacob Rothschild. This is a Brussels-based fund and it is no ordinary fund: it does not trade, it is not listed and it has a totally different purpose. It is being used for geopolitical engineering purposes, apparently under the guidance of the intelligence services. I have previously asked about the alleged involvement of the European Union’s own intelligence resources in the management of slush funds in offshore accounts, and I still await a reply. To that question I now add another: what are the European Union’s connections to the Global Security Fund and what relationship does it have with European Union institutions? I suggest that he will never get an answer, or at least a suitable one. Indeed a global fund of this nature must run into the trillions. Estimates are at $65 trillion, although I am not sure how accurate this figure is. In June 2009 Ashley Mote decided not to stand for re-election to the European Parliament, concluding that ‘the European Parliament remains a charade - a democratic fig-leaf designed to give an illusion of accountable democracy. It is, of course, merely an expensive talking shop, just tolerated by the unelected Commission which holds all the legislative power’. 571 Tory MEP Daniel Hannan has also expressed concerns over the democratic freedom of the European Union, believing it to create less democracy, less freedom and causing greater poverty for its constituent nations. With the Lisbon Treaty now ratified and with the Tory Party no longer holding a referendum on it, Hannan said that it was a step towards a European super-state and that ‘the boot continues to stamp on the human face’, a quotation from George Orwell’s ‘1984’. 572 I will detail the importance of Europe later, and the role of the elite within it.

TODAY

Notably whilst so many banks today are failing, JP Morgan Chase, like Goldman Sachs, has had bumper ‘unexpected’ profits in the billions, and are paying extraordinary bonuses. 573 Relevantly there is also an indirect family relationship between the Rothschilds and the Sachs family, via other important bloodlines. 574 The highly regarded book ‘Our Crowd’ by Stephen Birmingham, demonstrates a number of these familial relationships. The Jewish founded Goldman Sachs is the world’s largest investment bank and it has unprecedented power; the ability to make and break the economies of the countries of the world, not to mention that the bank funded Barack Obama’s presidential campaign. The Sunday Times reported, with regard to Goldman Sachs, that:

‘Number 85 Broad Street, New York, NY 10004, (Goldman Sachs main address) is where the money is. All of it. It is the site of the best cash-making machine that global capitalism has ever produced, and, some say, a political force more powerful than governments’. 575 (My parenthesis for explanation).

Remarkably, according to a notable source:
'The official records of ownership show that, while much of Goldman Sachs stock is owned by the public, a controlling share is in private hands, held by a consortium, or pool, of just 221 persons. The chief owner, however, is Lord Jacob Rothschild, and he and other Rothschild family members dominate the consortium which reigns over the planet’s most gigantic and powerful force, that of Money Power. Goldman Sachs is its nucleus and tornadic eye and centre.'

These are extraordinary claims which mean that the billionaire Jew, Lloyd Blankfein, who is the CEO at Goldman Sachs, is simply a Rothschild lackey. Blankfein recently claimed that he and his bank were doing ‘God’s Work!’ After realising the concern his comments made, he then tried to play them down and joke them away, not surprisingly! Goldman Sachs has just settled a recent accusation of fraud by paying a $356million fine – a drop in their financial ocean!

It is banks like these and their reckless trading that created the global financial crisis in the first place. Some would argue it was deliberate, so that greater global economic control would result. As the Guardian Newspaper recently stated: ‘Now we know the truth. The financial meltdown was not a mistake – it was a con’.

The Independent Newspaper also informs us that the financial actions of these banks have caused some of the poorest people in the world to starve.

If any doubt remains with regard to Rothschild involvement within globalisation, then an article in the eminent Times newspaper, which details Nathan Rothschild’s recent business dealings, will prove valuable. For a mainstream newspaper to make this statement, almost certainly betrays that there is a deeper level to Rothschild dominance, which The Times was perhaps unwilling to make. It reads:

‘Lending credence to the view that wherever there is a fusion of global wealth, power and influence, so it seems there is a Rothschild to oil the wheels...’

Historically, until 2005, N M Rothschild set the price of gold, having had influence over it since 1919. According to The Daily Telegraph, they withdrew from this role ‘as part of a strategic review’. Today the companies which set the price of gold twice per day, come under divisions within: The Bank of Nova Scotia, Deutsche Bank, HSBC, and Société Générale. With the Rothschilds having abdicated their role, Barclays Capital has taken over from them, which creates a fifth member of this group. All of these companies are members of the ‘London Bullion Market Association’, loosely overseen by the Bank of England. I doubt this change makes any difference because the present chairman of Barclays, at the time of writing, Marcus Ambrose Paul Agius, is married to Katherine nee Rothschild! I guess the influence remains. Besides, the Rothschilds are possibly one of the stock holders of Société Générale. This holding company is massive in its global scale.

It may interest you to know that the London Bullion Market uses a gold coloured sun and silver moon for its website logo. Is this a pagan undertone?

SUMMARY

So, we have demonstrated the awesome banking power of the Jewish Rothschilds, which is linked into the wider Jewish banking system, normally through a Cabballistic worldview, and their alliances with many globally minded Gentiles. We have also understood how they have influence within central banking and the global banking system generally. They are also tied into global bodies such as the World Zionist Organisation, and have influenced many others. We need to appreciate that today, more so than ever before, the entire monetary system is based on debt; massive debt. Historically war has been used to this end, where governments have become debtors to private banking institutes. Debt, whether nationally, internationally or even down to the individual, is how the banking cartel gains a hold over the world. Those who control the debt potentially control everything and everyone. Debt is slavery.

I regularly hear on The News, through the BBC, ITV, SKY and the like, comments made about London and it being the ‘financial centre of the world’ through the power of The City, (which actually has a unique political status independent to the rest of London). As a recent BBC commentator said, the American and British banking systems are ‘inexorably tied’ we have a ‘global banking system’ in the world today. However I suspect that as things become more economically globalised, the emphasis will shift to more overt global bodies; ones with more formal links to the United Nations, such as ‘The Bank of International Settlements’ (BIS). One way or another, world events will have associations with the finances of these banks and bodies. They affect us all, especially the American economy because it is so huge, with the dollar being used worldwide.

[Image]

Please note the rather unpleasant dragon-like City of London Coat of Arms. (The image has been kindly provided by Sodacan from wikipedia.org, although my application of it does not mean that the author endorses me or my usage of it).

GENEALOGIES AND IMPORTANT FRIENDS

Historically the Rothschilds have chosen their spouses on the basis of alliances that would benefit The House of Rothschild, examples of which have been noted in passing earlier. They have also married their cousins on occasions. Clearly over such a long period of time these marriages will be plenty in number, with many offspring. There are Rothschilds in London, Buckinghamshire, France and America. It will be a cabal from within the Rothschilds that will mainly head up The House of Rothschilds’ most important work today. The Rothschilds and their methods of acquiring spouses from within their wider families, is not completely unheard of. Those in royalty tend to be close knit with their families too. A similar example is the Duke of Kent - he is cousin to both Queen Elizabeth II and her husband Prince Philip.

Sir Evelyn Rothschild, who retired from N M Rothschilds and Sons, London in 2003, met his third wife at The Bilderberg Conference in 1998. The well connected millionaire Lynn Forester is also good friends with Bill and Hillary Clinton. \(^{582}\) Evelyn and Lynn even had part of their Wedding in the White House and now have business relationships with the richest man in the world, (according to the mainstream Press statistics), Carlos Slim. \(^{583}\) On my visit to Evelyn’s home, Ascott House, Buckinghamshire, through the National Trust, I noticed that his front room contained many books about Hillary Clinton, as well as priceless arts and crafts, such as ancient Ming Dynasty figurines. Evelyn’s career also includes being Chairman and Director of many companies such as The Economist, Cecil Rhodes’ De Beers Mines and IBM’s United Kingdom’s Holdings Limited. He has even been knighted by the Queen. 584

An example of how the wider Rothschild genealogy has influence, is through the ‘Rothschilds Foster Human Rights Trust’. Miriam Rothschild was one of the founders of this organisation, a highly intelligent woman with eight honourary degrees in a breadth of scientific disciplines. Through her scientific research she enabled the passing of the decriminalisation of homosexuality in England and Wales in the early 60s. She was a staunch environmentalist and conservationist. 585 Another example would be the environmentalist David Mayer de Rothschild, who supported the massive worldwide concert called ‘Live Earth’ in 2007. (He is the son of Evelyn). He was one of its main organisers along with Al Gore, who also has affinity with the concepts of the New World Order, globalisation and global warming. 586 It is likely that this liberal politician is also a high degree Freemason. 587 It may be of interest to know that there is even an island called ‘Rothschild Island’ in Antarctica, and they even have a giraffe named after them!

CLOSING REMARKS

It would be inaccurate for the reader to think that this illuminist desire for world government and globalisation falls squarely upon the Rothschilds; we have studied them extensively simply because of their profound relevance to Israel and the banking empire. Global governance requires a vast array of ‘allies’ throughout the world - a pyramid of power. The Rothschilds, the Rockefellers and other elitist people are surely at the higher end of this today. As this book continues the significance of The Rockefellers will unfold. 588 Many other high level politicians in America are linked with these important lineages, even to Royalty in Britain and Europe.

Whatever one finally concludes about these genealogies, they do emphasise an important feature - the world is highly influenced by oligarchies. An oligarchy is where political power, rule and control effectively rest with a small segment of the world population, in comparison to the rest of it. We must recognise that the Enemy has always wanted to control this world, to run it his own way. Genesis 3v15 makes it clear that from Eve an evil offspring would come; the offspring of the Serpent, the Devil. At that time it was The Nephilim but this ‘world empire spirit’ has continued spiritually throughout the ages in other men.

EXCURSUS – WADDESDON MANOR

It ought to be stated that historically the Rothschilds have been generous with their money in Buckinghamshire, England and other areas. They paid good wages, built Village Halls, Doctors surgeries, set up small trusts, constructed parks and open spaces. It is within Buckinghamshire that one of the ancestral homes of the Rothschilds exists - Waddesdon Manor - it is a magnificent estate. It was bequeathed to the ‘National Trust’ in 1957, along with a Rothschild donation of £750,000; no small gift in those days. Originally built by Ferdinand de Rothschild, the house is one of 42 palatial homes that the family have historically owned. Ferdinand was a Freemason, and to this day Ferdinand de Rothschild Lodge 2420, meets in Aylesbury Freemasonic Hall, Ripon Street. Ferdinand set it up in 1892, and was installed as Master. 589

In an unprecedented move, Lord Jacob Rothschild, who has housing in Marlborough and in the select village of Eythrope, which is within part of Waddesdon Manor Estate’s extended grounds, has been allowed to run the Manor ‘as a semi-independent operation’. 590 Through a Trust, he has also donated millions of pounds for the up keep of the estate. I guess such an offer was too good for The National Trust to refuse! According to their staff, a Rothschild is always on The Board. In 1995 The Queen and other royal family members dined at Waddesdon Manor, along with members from the House of Rothschild. Arnold Schwarzenegger and Warren Buffet (the world’s second richest man according to the mainstream media), had a conference with Jacob Rothschild, along with many others, at the Manor, in September 2002.

For all the Manor’s splendour, those who observe things more deeply, will have noticed upon visiting, some other details. Waddesdon Manor has many Masonic-like diamonds and triple triangles upon its window frames. The particular triple triangle I am thinking of is very much like the Trimourti of the Hindus, as seen in my Masonic Encyclopaedia by Albert Mackey. Gargoyle-like sculptures of hideous, often demonic appearance, stare down at you too. A sculpture of a child trying to mount a horned goat is also in the grounds, and the horned god with cloven feet, playing his panpipes, Pan, is also on show. Apollo with a snake crawling up a tree stump next to him is also there, as are many other demonic looking images. A sculpture of a sea serpent also attacks a person in its main fountain. There are also some large circular flower beds containing ornamental urns, which have pentagrams (five pointed stars) made out of flowers within them. An aerial view shows this very clearly.

In the garden are two giant occult ‘Xs’ made out of flowers, which from above look snake-like at their ends – again an aerial view helps. The ‘X’ is highly Egyptian, from its mystery religions, and appears within Freemasonry, such as in the degree of the ‘Knights of the East and the West’. Moreover, each ‘X’ rises up into a pyramid at the centre, and next to it are two other partly formed pyramids on either side, both with the capstone missing. This seems in keeping with the American ‘Great Seal’ design to me! I could detail some occult numerology with regard to these pyramids, but space will not permit. Also on one of the turret walls there is a criss-cross plant in an ‘X’ formation, and there are criss-cross ‘Xs’ on the roofs of many buildings around the Manor, such as the ‘Five Arrows Hotel’ and the ‘Dairy’. The criss-cross ‘Xs’ make diamond configurations by the nature of the joining of their patterns; diamonds being found in Cabbalism. Diamonds are obviously two triangles joined together as well. This criss-cross ‘X’ pattern was significant to me because I observed exactly the same shape and design on the main outside wall of the Masonic Lodge in Ipswich recently. There was also a triple tau in the triangle in the circle on the front of lodge too – the tau is the Greek letter for ‘T’. Waddesdon Manor may be built upon a Ley Line which runs through to Woburn Abbey; ley lines often being used in occult circles. There is more to Waddesdon than immediately meets the eye. Like so many rich homes around the world, such as those built by the Vanderbilts, Rockefellers and DuPonts, Waddesdon expresses occultic designs and art.

As far as the aforementioned Eythrope is concerned, one is not allowed to drive through it unless they live there, or are known by its residents. It is for all intents and purposes a private hamlet. One can walk on the Bridleway to get there, but the distance is about a mile before one even arrives at its entrance gate. The first house one comes to is what I would call a typical Rothschild secondary home or building, of which there are many in Buckinghamshire - probably historically used by those who worked on their land. As with many of these, they are very triangular in shape, and this particular one has a hideous, angry looking dragon sculpture, perched upon its roof. The familiar diamond criss-cross pattern is on its chimney too. As one walks further, a massive building with a tower, almost completely hidden by a large wood, has the familiar Rothschilds’ five arrows upon its gate. A little distance from here a more ‘open’ very large home is seen, again with the arrows upon its gate and with the criss-cross pattern on its highly triangular designed roof.

IMAGES OF THE ROTHSCHILDS

There is a famous photograph of James de Rothschild available, which has him standing with his hand upon some books, which are thought to be Cabbalist texts. The posture he is making is similar to the Masonic ‘Sign of the Fellow Craft’; many Egyptian statues have the same pose. Similarly I came across a photograph of Edmond de Rothschild whose hand was also upon some books, with a diamond in the background.

There is also a painting of the Rothschilds at prayer – it is available ‘on line’. Its artist is Daniel Moritz Oppenheim from the mid 1800s. On it the Rothschild family are covered in shrouds and are sitting round a table. There are lit candles positioned on the table - 6 in fact! And in what looks like a mirror at the end of the table, another figure is standing before what looks like an altar. One of the family members is reading a book. Maybe it is the Old Testament, or some Cabbalism texts?

As we end this section, we will now consider some of the symbolism within Israel, which often has links to the Rothschild Dynasty. For me these additional details provide conclusive evidence of their intentions, as the previous ‘Evidence’ chapter did with regard to America.
3. EVIDENCE II – ISRAEL AND MASONIC SYMBOLISM

There are many symbols in the world today which express an illuminist Masonic, Cabbalist agenda, and Israel is not an exception. Admittedly there are more than this book will analyse, but I have included the most obvious and relevant ones for Israel.

THE COMPASS AND SQUARE

This is one of the most common Masonic symbols. If there is a ‘G’ at the centre, it either stands for the Great Architect, the Masonic god, which I referred to earlier, or maybe Gnosticism - a reference to esoteric knowledge. Often there is no ‘G’ in the middle; sometimes an arm holding a hammer is used instead - but the compass and square are constant.

Near to the border between Israel and Egypt, just as you pass into Israel itself, on the one road that exists between Eilat and Taba, you will see this monument. It is clearly Masonic and was laid by ‘Solomon’s Pillars Lodge, number 59’. On it are the compass and the square, as above. The two columns represent the pillars of Solomon’s Temple, and the left one has an image of the world on top of it. Freemasons ‘build’ and so illuminised Masons are telling us that they are building their ambitions in and through Israel. Why else would such a huge sculpture be placed at the border entrance into Israel?

It is also a pyramid in shape and has an All-Seeing Eye upon the top of it too. Please note the concentric illumined-like circles around it. According to one source, this monument is directly associated with the Rothschild Dynasty and demonstrates their illuminist influence in that land. Image provided by kind permission of Jerry Golden.)
The Supreme Court

I previously mentioned the Supreme Court as being one of the Israeli buildings that the Rothschilds have funded, via Dorothy de Rothschild in particular; the Knesset being another. The new building for the Court was opened in 1992; its previous premises being fairly dour. This remarkable structure is highly Masonic with esoteric designs interwoven across its entire complex. The Egyptian element is distinctly there too. Jerry Golden, a Messianic Jew living in Israel who is active in missionary work to the Jews, wrestled with this whole issue. On the one hand he defends the belief of the Jewish rights to the land of Israel, yet at the same time he recognised another force at work in Israel too, through the Masonism he discovered with regard to this building, and the aforementioned Eilat monument. His fear was that he would be regarded as anti-Semitic for believing in something negative with regard to Israel and the Jews. After 4 years, and with great courage, he finally decided to publish his article about the Supreme Court. I will detail some of its more important features, but there are many others. I have cross referenced the information you are to read, at least three times.

In the next picture you can see a window at the top of a triangular building within the Supreme Court complex. The building is a pyramid and the window acts as an All-Seeing Eye on it! An obelisk is within its grounds too, as well as Hindu altars, which obviously has a link back into Eastern mysticism, which Cabbalism has associations with.
There is a plaque on one of the walls giving directions to the ‘Dorothy de Rothschild Grove’ and the familiar 5 arrows sign of the Rothschilds is also present. As one passes through security, there is a picture of the main persons who were behind the construction of the building, one of which is Lord Jacob Rothschild, another being Shimon Peres for example. Within the building itself as one turns towards the pyramid area, one will walk over a metal strip, underneath which is an occult ‘ley line’, which then extends itself into the city of Jerusalem. There is a window there, from which you can look straight up at the pyramid above, with its ‘Eye’ in full view. The ley line runs straight on to the Knesset building, and then from there, perpendicular to that, it goes through Ben Yehuda - Jerusalem’s equivalent to ‘Glastonbury’. From there it goes straight to the Rockefeller Museum, and then on through the Muslim Quarter to the Temple Mount! Across from the main Courtroom are stairs leading down to the Masonic symbol of the ‘Compass and Square’, and as one approaches the pyramid there are 30 steps. As you go up these, there is a great library of three tiers, reserved only for professionals of differing standards of achievement. That is 33 levels altogether, equivalent to the 33 degrees of Freemasonry!

There are other elements to this amazing building, but these will suffice. The Supreme Court also stands next to the Rothschild controlled Central Bank of Israel. The extraordinary detail of the Supreme Court, even down to the exact numbers of bricks and metals sheets used, is astounding. When I visited Waddesdon Manor a model for the Supreme Court was on display. I noticed in addition to the above information, that 21 pyramids were upon its roof, not including the main pyramid - 21 is a multiple of 3 and 7; 3 being an occultic number. Obviously the 2 and the 1 of the 21 also add up to 3. Further numerologies can be made through multiplications of the four sides of each pyramid. (The pyramid image at the Supreme Court has been kindly provided by yxejamir from Flickr.com, although my application of it does not mean that the author endorses me or my usage of it).

THE STAR OF DAVID

Earlier I demonstrated the link between the Star of David/Solomon’s Seal and Freemasonry and Cabbalism. This section will delve a little deeper into the meaning of this symbol.

According to Hitchcock and Marrs, the Seal of Solomon or hexagram represents the number 666. There are six triangles on the outside of the hexagram, these create six points outward. These have been made by the interlocking of the two main triangles, which are constructed by using six lines. Thus 666! I have already demonstrated something of its relevance to Cabbalism by quoting from the Cabbalist the Vilna Gaon earlier – that the number 666 has ‘lofty messianic potential’. Barbara Walker from her highly acclaimed encyclopaedia, confirms that the word ‘hex’ (to curse) and the associated word ‘hexagram’, both relate to the number ‘6’. So, in my mind the development of the ‘6’ to ‘666’ with reference to this, is just a matter of progressive logic. Indeed the six triangles within the construct of the Star each with 3 sides = 18 sides in total. Remarkably 6 + 6 + 6 = 18! 18 is a variable on 3 and 6 and the 1 and the 8 of the 18 = 9, which is another variable on the number 3. Obviously the number 666 is to be the figure the Beast’s name will add up to, so any relationship to this Star is more of a sideways association. However this is still an important observation, which the reader needs to be informed about, hence my inclusion.
Further evidence about the 666 connection, comes from realising that the Israelites were accused of worshipping Remphan and his star. The verses relevant to this are Amos 5v26 and Acts 7v43.

‘Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets... You also took up the tabernacle of Moloch (or Molech), and the star of your god Remphan (Chiun), images which you made to worship; and I will carry you away beyond Babylon,’ Acts 7v42-43. NKJV.

In Acts 7 Stephen is actually quoting the verse from Amos. Amos 5v26 in the King James Version refers to another god ‘Chiun’, who is equivalent to Remphan. (I added the relevant additional names in the brackets in the verses above). So the star of Remphan was also the star of Chiun. According to the online Theosophical glossary, based on the work of the theosophist Helena Blavatsky, Chiun relates to another god called ‘Saturn’.

A similar point is made by Messianic Jew Dr Graham in her book ‘The Six Pointed Star’. So the star of Remphan, which is also the star of Chiun, is also the star of Saturn! Saturn is also the 6th planet in the solar system - it has astrological connotations, and is close in pronunciation to the word ‘Satan’. Interestingly, Chiun, the glossary reads, also relates to the Hindu god Siva, or Shiva, often known as the destroyer.

According to a book by the late Alexander Hislop, a respected Anglican Bishop, in Babylonia the name Saturn was pronounced ‘Stur’, which is very close to the word ‘Star’. Stur has four letters and they each have a numerical value, a gematria - a common feature for ancient languages. S equals 60, T equals 400, U equals 6 and R equals 200. Together those numbers add up to 666! So, Saturn and his star, which is the same star as that of Remphan and Chiun, equals 666 in value.

You will notice that in the verses above, the god Moloch/Molech is also mentioned and this god relates directly to Chiun/Remphan. Moloch was also one of the gods that King Solomon eventually worshipped, see 1 Kings 11v7 onwards. Bearing in mind the linkage of these gods as described above, it is remarkable what Dr Graham writes in her book:

‘Solomon’s blatant idolatry had angered the Lord to the point of bringing about the division of the kingdom of Israel. Part of the evidence is the six pointed star, which was called the Seal of Solomon from then on. Let us investigate those false gods with which he was involved... First mentioned was Ashtoreth, otherwise called Astarte, the word meaning star... (read 2 Kings 23v13 for a biblical reference about these false gods)... King Solomon built an altar for Ashtoreth, worshipped her and also practised Moloch rituals. It was at this time that the hexagram or six pointed Star came to be called the Seal of Solomon... Solomon’s Seal was accepted as occult by the occult world. King Solomon was deeply involved in witchcraft and occultism. According to ‘The Sorcerer’s Handbook’, King Solomon, traditionally known as an arch magician, used a spell to banish infernal beings...’ (My italics and addition for emphasis).
So we can now develop our line of thought by introducing one other important detail. King Solomon, who worshipped false gods, worshipped a god called Moloch who also has a direct relationship to the usage of a star! Because Moloch relates to Chiun/Remphan and its star, according to our Amos passage above, and because these gods relate to Saturn who used a star, then I am sure that this star of Saturn was what Solomon was actually involved with during his idolatry as well. So, we have an interchangeable set of facts about these ancient gods and the usage of a star and its numerical value being 666! Thus the Star of David has deep occult and Babylonian connections. This view has also been verified independently by another source.

Therefore we have good grounds to believe that the Star of David, the Seal of Solomon, in both Cabballism and Freemasonry, secretly adds up to 666! This hexagram, this six-pointed star, is therefore cursed and highly demonic and very relevant for a study like this, what with our interest in Revelation 13 and the mark of the Beast. With the Bible locating the rule of the Beast from a re-built Temple in Israel, a country that uses this very symbol, and a Beast whose name adds up to 666, we truly have some important details which fit with our end times picture. No wonder God said: ‘Solomon did evil in the eyes of the LORD…’, 1 Kings 11v6. Interestingly, the weight of Solomon’s gold in one year was 666 talents, according to 1 Kings 10v14!

CONCLUSION

Finally if you look at the book ‘Codex Magica’ by Texe Marrs, you will find further evidence of many of the politicians from Israel, including its Prime Ministers, (and other politicians from around the world), using Masonic handshakes and so forth. I think some of the pictures of certain handshakes are dubious because of the nature of how handshakes can sometimes vary; but there is enough evidence to give further strength to my argument, all things considered. My other books by McCormick, Richardson and Duncan also confirm the types of handshakes Masons use.
4. JERUSALEM, CABBALISM, FREEMASONRY AND THE THIRD TEMPLE

It has been suggested by a number of authors that there is a secret ambition by those of The Illuminati and illuminised Freemasonry to rebuild Solomon's Temple, a 'Third Temple', in Jerusalem. Naturally it is not completely straightforward to provide definitive evidence for this because it is such a narrow and clandestine field, but I will do what I can to demonstrate the plausibility of this contention. Bearing in mind the prophetic material within Matthew 24, 2 Thessalonians 2 and Revelation 13 which refer to an end times ruler and his desire to be worshipped in a rebuilt Temple, this section will be of great value. We have already appreciated the intention to do this within Cabbalism, and Dispensationalism has interest in this too. But does it appear within certain expressions of Freemasonry, perhaps those Masonic forms which are particularly honouring of Masonry’s Cabbalistic roots?

First it is important to note that King Solomon and the usage of Jewish words associated with his Temple, is interwoven into the very depths of Masonism and its rites. My Freemasonry chapter has already demonstrated this, even from the 1st degree. Mackey in his Encyclopaedia declares that the symbol of the Temple to Masonry is so important, that the system of Freemasonry would die without it. As this is so, Freemasonry teaches the importance of rebuilding the Temple spiritually within the Mason’s life. However, I would like to suggest that if some Masons were offered the choice between literally rebuilding the Temple of Solomon, a Third Temple, in Jerusalem, or just a symbolic one in their personal lives, I think they would be tempted with the literal as well. A physical symbol of what has happened to them spiritually does not seem preposterous.

Within Cabbalism, as we have read, the Star of David, the hexagram, is about the perfecting of Mankind and the perfecting of the world under its pantheist system. The pinnacle of this perfection would be the building of the Third Temple and its coming false messiah. When that occurs it will finally be ‘as above, so below’ across the world. But, this Star is also within Freemasonry. Is it not possible then, that within certain ‘strands’ of Freemasonry the rebuilding of the Temple would also be the crowning glory of a world perfected? If Freemasonry has parallels with Cabbalism on a number of points, then why not with regard to the physical Temple? Surely there is room within its belief system for this. For high illuminised Masons like the Rothschilds, who are steeped in Cabbalism, and members of The Illuminati, I suggest that the Masonic, Cabbalist levels at which they operate will include a desire for a Third Temple.

Supportive of my argument are certain details from 33rd degree Freemason Arthur Edward Waite’s mammoth Encyclopaedia: ‘…in the High Grades [of Masonry] we hear of a secret intention to build yet another temple at Jerusalem’. On the previous page before this admission, he also confirms that this ambition is within Cabbalism. Waite also employs the term ‘as above, so below’, as part of his discussion on Zion. Interestingly there are a number of newspapers from the nineteenth century and earlier, with articles describing certain Masons who were desirous of a Third Temple, in Jerusalem. The organisation ‘watch unto prayer’, which always produces thorough articles, informs us by quoting several authors that:

‘Elias Ashmole and William Lilly founded a Rosicrucian lodge in London in 1646 based upon... the rebuilding of Solomon’s temple as revered in the Templar tradition...’

‘[Isaac Newton] drew a reconstructed floor plan of the Temple of Solomon...’

‘Margaret Wertheim, author of a history of God and physics [wrote], ‘Isaac Newton who spent years trying to decipher Old Testament prophecies, believed he had found the true dimensions of the Temple of Solomon [and it was] meant to be an earthly embodiment of heaven...’ [My addition].
With Rosicrucianism being linked with what later became Freemasonry, this is an interesting quotation. ‘The LaRouche Movement’ is worldwide in influence and founded by Lyndon LaRouche. LaRouche has run for President of America in the past, and is still one of the Movement’s contributors. This organisation is like a ‘think tank’, focussing on political issues and education, global or otherwise. It also has its own press service called ‘The Executive Intelligence Review’ (EIR). In November 2000, EIR published an article called, ‘Temple Mount Fanatics Foment a New Thirty Years War’:

‘After months of investigation, more than 30 interviews, and a review of thousands of pages of primary source documents, some never previously made public, Executive Intelligence Review has established that the entire Temple Mount provocation is being run, top-down, by... highest levels of British Freemasonry... Lord Northampton... has been atop the Temple Mount conducting “Temple studies...” In December 1995, the “Jerusalem” freemasonic lodge was established, adjacent to the Temple Mount, in the Grotto of King Solomon, to work for the rebuilding of Solomon’s Temple’.

I referred to Lord Northampton earlier under the ‘Internet Lodge’ website, which provided us with information about the additional degrees of Freemasonry and its relationship to the Supreme Council at Duke Street in London. If the above proves accurate, then once again we find a move towards Temple construction within Freemasonry. It also shows that members within the aristocracy in Britain, (and Royalty because it has some associations with them), have Masonry within their blood. A more everyday example would be that the cousin to Prince Philip and The Queen, the Duke of Kent, is head of the United Grand Lodge of England, (UGLE). As previously stated, George VI, The Queen’s late father, was also a Mason - both of these facts coming from the UGLE website. A great deal could be written about Masonry within Royalty. Royalty also has relationships with other important persons and their families, relating to some of the lineages and bloodlines I have already referred to. Incidentally one other interesting name is listed on UGLE’s Famous Masons page - Geoffrey Fisher former ‘Archbishop of Canterbury’ until 1972!

In the short films ‘Illuminati Mystery Babylon’ and ‘Masonic Lodge over Jerusalem’, Texe Marrs details extensively the ambitions of Freemasonry. Marrs demonstrates that there are Jewish Masons and Cabalist Jews, within Israel, and around the world, and their ambition is to rebuild the Temple on the Mount in Jerusalem. He claims that the Chief Rabbi of Israel (until 2003), Yisrael Meir Lau, was a Freemason, as well as the fact that there is a secret Masonic Lodge underground, underneath Zedekiah’s Cave. Rabbis are also being trained in order to take up their teaching roles within the New Temple when it is built. Marrs also claims that a scale model of the Third Temple can be found in the ‘Rockefeller Museum’ in Jerusalem as well, although I have not been able to verify this. If so this is an important fact bearing in mind the Rockefeller’s illuminist agenda and relationship to the Rothschilds. In fact the ‘Biblical Archaeology Society’ lists the name Rockefeller and the ‘Rockefeller Museum’ in its database.

John J Robinson’s book, ‘Born in Blood, the Lost Secrets of Freemasonry’, is a book which attempts to trace the history and formation of Freemasonry. Robinson writes in his conclusion:

‘What I am suggesting is that about 5 million Freemasons in the world, who do accept brotherhood with men of all faiths, in that spirit, might take the lead in solving the problem of the Temple Mount by combining their religious attitudes with their veneration of the Temple of Solomon, to the benefit of the whole world... it would give new meaning to each man shaping himself into the perfect ashlar ready to take its place in the Temple of God. It would be a wonderful way to complete the unfinished Temple of Solomon... the safe passage of all pilgrims to that holy place’.

(Ashlar is a spiritual state of enlightenment or progress). My emphasis and explanation.

Robinson suggests that the Temple should be a ‘tripartite’ (three-way) Temple for all religions; primarily for Jews, Christians and Muslims - perhaps interconnected with a common courtyard or plaza. Moreover, this coming together of all religions reflects the spirit behind a ‘collective soul’ and pluralism that Freemason Walter Wilmshurst wrote about in his authoritative work, which I referred to earlier. Freemasonry has always been open to all religions and is pantheistic at its highest expression. Robinson's book has an interesting design. First, it has a picture of the Star of David, then a slightly regressed image, which finally becomes the familiar Masonic square and compass. The upward pointing triangular images are all white; but the downward triangular images are black.

Of course the above is Robinson's personal view, but what is highly important to note is that at the time when Robinson wrote his book, he was not a Mason. But so pleased were The Supreme Council with his work they made Robinson a honorary Master Mason after its publication! By his death Robinson had been made a honourary 33rd degree Mason! I have cross referenced this claim from the actual website of The Supreme Council, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction, USA. As this is so, I must conclude that the building of a Third Temple is the likely intention of some high level Masons of the Supreme Council. If it is not, why did they put their name to a book that clearly suggests this, indeed a book advocating such a controversial building project?

It is important to note that within a matter of days of Israel being formed in 1948, Masonic lodges were beginning to be erected all over Israel. Indeed many were formed before 1948 as well. With the Jewish connection to Freemasonry in mind, this should not come as a surprise. Further, in the article and the associated broadcast of ‘Mysteries of the Temple’, Marrs has a photograph of this proposed Third Temple, which is obelisk-like in shape. He also argues that many other religious groups are supportive of this Temple project. I am uncertain, but I believe those standing next to the Temple in the photograph are Scottish Rite Freemasons, because of the black and white chequered floor.

Naturally building such a Temple would be extremely tense for the Muslims because of issues pertaining to The Dome of the Rock and the Al Aqsa Mosque. Many Muslims are bothered by the possibility of a Third Temple being built. But, there are Masonic Muslims in high positions who may be secretly aware of these intentions. The following advertisement from The Jerusalem Post in November 1994 indicates that there are Masonic Muslims of pedigree in the world. ‘To the Masons of Peace’, “The Honourable Yitzak Rabin, (5th) Prime Minister of Israel”, “His Majesty, King Hussein of Jordan”, and “The Honourable Bill Clinton, President of the United States”.

If a Temple could be rebuilt that honours all faiths, then maybe such an idea is not impossible.

I have a little book from UGLE (The United Grand Lodge of England), which is based at Freemasons’ Hall, London. The book contains pictures of the Grand Temple Ceiling, the Grand Temple Doors and so forth. Amongst other things which I could mention, it is worth noting that the artwork on the Grand Ceiling, on the north facing side, has the Jewish pillars of the Temple of Solomon and the Star of David (the Seal of Solomon) between them. A partial quotation from 1 Chronicles 17v12-14 goes round the entire ceiling with the words ‘...and his throne shall be established forevermore'; ending on this north facing side. These verses are about King Solomon.

In Christian eschatology this verse is also prophetic about Jesus and his eternal reign, which will be forever. But the Masons cannot be referring to Jesus the Messiah by quoting this verse, and neither can they be referring to the deceased King Solomon either. Maybe the desire for his throne to be established forevermore is a veiled way of referring to a time when a Cabballist, Masonic individual will reign. Of course others will argue that this reign is purely spiritual in the lives of the Masons. However, Albert Pike does refer to a messiah figure in ‘Morals and Dogma’, for the 17th degree of ‘Knight of the East and West’, commenting that it is ‘the object, the end, the result...' for many ancient belief systems, naming Cabballism as one of them. The other designs, south, east and west are also interesting - a pentalpha (a variable on the pentagram) and an All Seeing Eye being used on the south side.
Similarly Michael Hoffman, in his book ‘Secret Societies and Psychological Warfare’, whose work also has relevance to the field of Freemasonry, Science and how ancient beliefs seep into the psyche of society, regards the re-building of the Temple as the: ‘crowning objective of the masonic script’.

RAELIANISM

There is also a New Age organisation called ‘The Raelian Movement’, whom I will refer to again in my United Nations and New Age chapter. They are esoteric, but New Ageism is definitely the framework for their beliefs. According to the movement’s book ‘Intelligent Design’, (also available as a download), they too refer to the need for the Third Temple or Embassy to be rebuilt in Jerusalem, on neutral land (ex-territorial). The architectural design provided for the building has a Star of David upon the roof. The idea of Jerusalem being ex-territorial for all religions is not unusual. Rael wants his followers to donate $20 million dollars to build this Temple and he has already received at least $7 million. The movement also desires a New World Order. The notions of a world government and world economy are very much part of the New Age agenda too, and thus it has relevance to Israel and the end times picture. Remarkably there is evidence that Rael under the alias or alter ego of Igor N Grata, on Facebook, has a list of personal friends, which includes 57 Rothschilds and 14 Rockefellers!

ARCHAEOLOGY

Dr Leen Ritmeyer is a Dutch-born architect who received his Doctorate from Manchester University. He is at the top of his field. He has been specifically working on the ‘Temple Mount’ in Jerusalem. What is of great importance for us is that he has been funded and awarded grants by a number of organisations, one of which has come from The Rothschilds! His own website declares: ‘grant awarded by the Rothschild Foundation in Geneva, Switzerland’. One of the positions Ritmeyer has held was ‘on behalf of Yad Hanadiv, the Rothschild Foundation in Israel’. A separate report stated: ‘The Rothschilds have been the largest financial supporters of archaeological digs in Israel this (last) century, and the famous Masada dig of the 1950s was actually called the ‘Edmond de Rothschild Masada Dig’. James A de Rothschild also sponsored an archaeological dig at Hazor.

Why are the Rothschilds funding archaeology to do with the Temple Mount, if they have no interest in a Third Temple? One could argue that because The Rothschilds are of Jewish descent they may simply have an attraction to the Temple Mount because they are interested in Jewish history and the First and Second Temple periods. Admittedly this may be true, but I think it is unlikely that this is their entire reason. Bearing in mind our previous information about the Cabbalist Rothschilds, we can argue for a Third Temple interest too. The articles which I used earlier to prove that The Rothschilds had funded the Masonically designed Israeli Supreme Court, also claim that there is an agenda to rebuild the Temple. Moreover, Dr Graham, in her book ‘The Six Pointed Star, its origin and use’, wrote:

‘In 1836, Kalischer appealed to Mayer Amschel... to buy out completely the land of Israel, or at least Jerusalem and particularly the Temple area in order to ‘bring about the miraculous redemption from below’. Zevi Kalischer said the salvation promised by the prophets of old could come only gradually and by self-help from the Jews’.

The phrase ‘bring about the miraculous redemption from below’, is very in keeping with the highly important Cabbalist term ‘as above, so below’.

PRESENT AMBITIONS FOR REBUILDING THE TEMPLE

Since the Jews have returned to the land of Israel, there have been many movements and even some attempts to start re-building the Third Temple. In fact there have been many attempts throughout history to rebuild it, but all have failed. I suggest that that is because there is a sovereign timing to when it can be built. 633

I have already detailed the Cabbalist intention for the building of the Third Temple in the Cabbalism chapter - I will not repeat that here. To aid recollection, studies of organisations such as the ‘Temple Mount Faithful’, founded by Gershom Salomon, Rabbi Chaim Richman and the ‘Temple Institute’, ‘Temple Mount’ and the ‘Lubavitchers’ will be profitable. 634 635 636 637 638 Mike Evans, in his book ‘Jerusalem Betrayed’, also confirms the move towards building a Third Temple and other Dispensational writers relevant to this would be Randall Price and Hal Lindsey, whom I mentioned earlier in this book. I even quoted Rabbi Shlomo Aviner from Stephen Sizer’s book, as an example of the fervour for this building project and its association with Dispensationalism. 639

In ‘Prophetic Vision’, Spring 2000 edition, the article ‘The New Temple’, gives further evidence. 640 The magazine details David Hathaway, an evangelist whom I respect, interviewing the aforementioned Rabbi Richman of ‘The Temple Institute’. Hathaway’s article gives the impression of warmth towards the prospect of building this new temple; there is nothing to suggest otherwise. Discussions about the Red Heifer needed for purifying priests are detailed, and that over 45 categories of vessels required for the Temple have already been made. On January 8th 2008, ICEJ (the International Christian Embassy Jerusalem), commented on the Red Heifer and how the genetic code has been cracked in order to clone the beast.

It is relevant to mention that when I was on holiday in Israel, I saw a number of Jewish shops promoting the ‘Third Temple’. There is without doubt a growing desire generally for a Third Temple to be built in Israel today, as the statistics prove, and it is linked to the time when the Cabbalist messiah returns. 641

DAVID BEN GURION – CABBALISM, FREEMASONRY AND THE UNITING OF THE WORLD

One final and important piece of information, which indicates the ambitions of Zionism, which clearly fits with the end times picture, comes from the first Prime Minister of Israel, David ben Gurion. He said the goal of Zionism was that:

‘...continents will become united in a world alliance, at whose disposal will be an international police force. All armies will be abolished, and there will be no more wars. In Jerusalem, the United Nations (a truly United Nations) will build a Shrine of the Prophets to serve the federated union of all continents; this will be the seat of the Supreme Court of mankind, to settle all controversies among the federated continents’. 642 (The article’s italics and parenthesis, not mine - but my emphasis).

David ben Gurion made these remarks on January 16th 1962 and they were printed in ‘Look Magazine’. 643 His ambition is in keeping with the ‘global spirit’ and the unifying of all people. Indeed a similar expression was made a number of years earlier in 1948 during an interview with Time Magazine. Ben Gurion suddenly dropped his matter of fact style and became ‘the prophet’ during the interview, telling the reporter:

‘Suffering makes a people greater, and we have suffered much. We had a message to give the world, but we were overwhelmed, and the message was cut off in the middle. In time there will be millions of us - becoming stronger and stronger - and we will complete the message”. “What is the message”? the reporter asked. “Our policy must be the unity of the human race. The world is divided into two blocs. We consider that the United Nations’ ideal is a Jewish ideal”’. 644 My emphasis.

Further Ben Gurion also said, according to the ‘Jewish Chronicle’ in 1949:

‘Jerusalem is not the capital of Israel and world Jewry; it aspires to become the spiritual centre of the world’. 645
David ben Gurion was almost certainly a Freemason, as well as a Marxist. The late Cabbalist authority, Rabbi Yehuda Leib HaLevi Aslag, also known as Baal HaSulam, met with David ben Gurion when Israel first formed, to discuss Cabbalism. Further, Chaim Weizmann, former President of the World Zionist Organisation:

‘recognised that Zionism is part of a much larger game... the re-establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine and the organisation of the world in a great federation were complementary features in the next step in the management of human affairs’. My emphasis.

Similarly ‘Jewish World’ announced in February 1883, that:

‘The great ideal of Judaism is that the whole world shall be imbued with Jewish teaching and that in a Universal Brotherhood – a greater Judaism in fact – all the separate races and religions shall disappear’. My emphasis.

And:

‘The Jews energetically reject the idea of fusion with the other nationalities and cling firmly to their historical hope of world empire’, Max Mandelstam, at the World Zionist Congress, July 1898. My emphasis.

For me these comments are an extraordinary confirmation of the many strands of thought presented in this book. Indeed the term ‘shrine to the prophets’ in Jerusalem has distinct parallels to the idea of a re-built Third Temple, with a globalised religion and reign, akin to the Beasts of Revelation 13. Indeed, regarding the United Nations as a Jewish ideal simply supports this further. Springmeier concludes: ‘simply stated, Zionism (with Rothschild support) promotes a New World Order’. (Parenthesis in the original).

CONCLUDING THOUGHTS

We have already observed how America was set up with a clandestine agenda through its Masonic founders, with a secret destiny for the world. We have noted the importance of its global influence and its symbolism. We have also observed how Israel and Jerusalem is at the heart of this globalisation process, through its symbol of the Star of David, through Rothschild influence and support. Shortly we shall detail the Rothschilds’ and other powerful persons’ involvement with certain globalist organisations too. We have also understood that Jerusalem will be the place from where the Beast will reign and the city will be the final ‘Babylon’, with control over the ‘kings of the earth’, Revelation 17v18. Through this, along with the formation of The European Union and the progress towards further unifications, we can see that the world is becoming like an Empire - the fulfilment of the New World Order.

It is details like these, and those presented in this chapter, which might explain why America is so allied with Israel in that overt way. It would explain why she has such interest in all Israeli-Palestinian peace talks. Indeed it may also explain why there are growing relationships between Israel and America, Britain, the European Union and the United Nations. Israel is already regarded by some politicians as virtually a de facto member of the European Union. Javier Solana said that the Union’s ties with Israel are stronger than that with Croatia, which is actually a fully fledged member. ‘Israel... is (a) member of the European Union without being a member of the institution’. Similarly Silvio Berlusconi’s ‘greatest desire’ is to see Israel join the EU and that his recent meeting with Benjamin Netanyahu was ‘extremely important’ for relations between Jerusalem and Rome. Indeed does this not demonstrate empire building beyond the borders of Europe? If there are men in The Illuminati, illuminised Freemasonry, Cabbalism and New Age positions, who desire deeper globalisation, which may secretly involve the rebuilding of the Temple in Jerusalem, then this might be one of the agendas within the highest levels of world power and why relations such as those named above, are deepening. It would provide some explanation about why they unify together, and are intent on globalisation and the New World Order process, with Israel and Jerusalem at the centre of that. It may also explain why Israel, a comparatively tiny land, is at the heart of The United Nations’ resolutions. For me, the evidence is persuasive.

I recognise that the evidence I have produced is not definitive; but on one level how could it be? If what we are dealing with is highly secretive and only known to high level illuminised Masons and the like, then information about it will not be readily available. This also explains why there is a legitimate Freemasonry website on-line which argues against the idea that Masons want to literally rebuild the Temple. If such knowledge is only the privy of The Illuminati and high degree illuminised Freemasons and Cabbalists, then it should not surprise us to find such diverse opinion. However, I believe we have a strong indicator that a Third Temple is part of Cabbalistic, Masonic thinking, with a World Empire as part of that.

Lastly, what matters more than anything else are The Scriptures. They are by no means least! They clearly demonstrate that in the last days prior to the physical return of Jesus, the Temple will have been restored in Jerusalem and that upon its throne will sit the Lawless One, the abomination that causes desolation, The Beast. That man will have a World Empire, a worldwide totalitarian rule, supported by a second religious Beast - the False Prophet. If that is what the Bible tells us, I trust that it shall be so.

EXCURSUS: BABYLONIANISM, CABBALISM, FREEMASONRY, SCIENCE AND EVOLUTION

PANTHEISISM - THESIS, ANTITHESIS AND SYNTHESIS

Both Cabbalism and Freemasonry have distinct Babylonian traits. I have argued that these belief systems have correlations with pantheism, and how the pantheistic forces work together directing the Universe along its supposed evolutionary path. I also referred to the Seal of Solomon or the Star of David, and other symbols, as representative of this pantheism and its evolutionary cycle.

Therefore it is clear that pantheism is highly connected to ‘evolutionary’ thought. The god force flows through everything - together they move on into perfection. What we have is a ‘Universal Motion’ occurring until eventually the final perfect order comes - the Great Work completed. It will be ‘ordo ab chao’ – order out of chaos - to use another Masonic term.

But this concept is found within philosophy too! It is called ‘The Hegelian Dialectic’ which was invented by George Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel. His teaching can also be traced back to another philosopher called Johann Fichte, who was almost certainly linked to the Bavarian Illuminati. The dialectic uses the terms thesis, antithesis and synthesis – or more simply problem, reaction and solution.

So, we now have a philosophical way to express the evolutionary process of the Universe! We have problems and their reactions, out from which comes a solution, which is yet another stage of the evolutionary process. This process goes on and on until the final, perfect solution, eventually arrives. For Hegel everything that we experience is part of this evolutionary process, and in fact God is evolving too.

Not surprisingly Hegel was also a pantheist! Many other important men have been influenced by these beliefs – some names have been provided under this endnote, and others appear within different parts of this book.
OUR WORLD IS DOMINATED BY SCIENCE AND EVOLUTIONARY THINKING. IN THE EXCELLENT, YET ACADEMIC WORK ‘THE ASCENDANCY OF THE SCIENTIFIC DICTATORSHIP: AN EXAMINATION OF EPISTEMIC AUTOCRACY, FROM THE 19TH TO THE 20TH CENTURY’, THE WRITERS PAUL AND PHILIP COLLINS, ARGUE FOR THE ASSOCIATION OF FREEMASONRY WITH SCIENCE. IT IS HIGHLY CROSS REFERENCED AND I BELIEVE AUTHORITATIVE FOR THIS STUDY.

THE WRITERS DEMONSTRATE THAT CHARLES DARWIN’S TEACHING ON EVOLUTION IS UNDERPINNED BY THE DIALECTIC OF THESIS, ANTITHESIS AND SYNTHESIS. T H HUXLEY, A CONTEMPORARY OF DARWIN, ALSO HELD THE SAME VIEW. I WILL DEMONSTRATE THIS TO YOU BY A SIMPLE EXAMPLE. THE ORGANISM IS THE THESIS, THEN THE CONFLICT WITH NATURE IS THE ANTITHESIS, OUT OF WHICH A NEW EVOLVED SPECIES EMERGES, THE SYNTHESIS. 661 PROBLEM, REACTION, SOLUTION. FURTHERMORE, COLLINS AND COLLINS PROVIDE EVIDENCE THAT BOTH CHARLES DARWIN AND T H HUXLEY WERE DEEPLY INFLUENCED BY FREEMASONRY. CHARLES DARWIN’S FATHER, ERASMUS DARWIN, WAS PART OF ‘THE LUNAR SOCIETY’, WHICH WAS ‘INTIMATELY TIED TO FREEMASONRY’, AND IT WAS HE WHO PASSED THESE BELIEFS ONTO CHARLES WHO LATER FORMULATED HIS FAMOUS EVOLUTIONARY THEORY. 662 LIKewise, THESE WRITERS GO ON TO DEMONSTRATE THAT T H HUXLEY WAS A FREEMASON AND IT WAS HE WHO TAUGHT H G WELLS, WHO WAS ALSO A MASON. 663

SO WE HAVE FREEMASONRY, WHICH IS BASED ON CABBALISM, AND BOTH ARE LINKED TO THE MYSTERY RELIGIONS AND PANTEISM. IN EACH OF THESE BELIEF SYSTEMS IS THE CONCEPT OF AN EVOLUTIONARY PROCESS IN THE WORLD AND HUMANKIND. REMARKABLY THE VERY MEN WHO INITIATED SCIENTIFIC EVOLUTION ARE LINKED DIRECTLY AND INDIRECTLY TO FREEMASONRY, A BELIEF SYSTEM IN WHICH WE FIND AN EVOLUTIONARY CONCEPT! SURELY THIS IS NOT BY CHANCE?

FURTHER CONNECTIONS

ARE THERE MORE CONNECTIONS BETWEEN FREEMASONRY, SCIENCE AND EVOLUTION? I HAVE USED SOME OF THESE QUOTATIONS BEFORE, BUT THEY HAVE RELEVANCE HERE.

‘THIRTY-THIRD DEGREE MASON J.D. BUCK CONDENSES THIS CONTENTION INTO ONE SIMPLE STATEMENT: “THE ONLY PERSONAL GOD FREEMASONRY ACCEPTS IS HUMANITY IN TOTO... (THAT IS, IN ITS ENTIRETY, IN ITS TOTALITY) ...HUMANITY THEREFORE IS THE ONLY PERSONAL GOD THERE IS”’. 665 MY PARENTHESIS FOR EXPLANATION AND EMPHASIS.

‘GIVEN DARWINISM’S ROOTS IN OCCULT FREEMASONRY AND ITS EXPEDIENT PROMOTION OF AN EMERGENT SPECIES OF SUPERMEN... CHARLES DARWIN ACTED AS THE ELITE’S APOSTLE, PREACHING THE NEW SECULAR GOSPEL OF EVOLUTION. DARWINISM COULD BE CONSIDERED A FREEMASONIC PROJECT, THE CULMINATION OF A PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN FOUNDED BY THE LODGE’. 667

EVOLUTION OFTEN CAUSES PEOPLE TO DISBELIEVE IN GOD, ESPECIALLY THE GOD OF THE BIBLE. THE RESULT OF THAT IS OFTEN HUMAN POTENTIAL – THAT MANKIND CAN SOLVE THE WORLD’S ISSUES – THAT WE DO NOT NEED A SAVIOUR. IS THIS NOT PRECISELY WHAT BABYLONISM IS ALL ABOUT? BABYLONIANISM IS ALWAYS ABOUT THE EXALTATION OF MAN, BUILDING A WORLD INDEPENDENT TO THE GOD OF THE BIBLE! EVOLUTIONARY THINKING, SCIENTIFIC OR OTHERWISE, SERVES THE BABYLONIAN PURPOSE!
With God having been removed from the world because of science and its discoveries, the teaching about the ‘occult doctrine of “becoming”’, of Man attaining to godhood - of becoming a more advanced and evolved species - could then be introduced. This is an astounding discovery indeed! Earlier I referred to ‘impersonal pantheism’, which allows for the possibility of atheism. This may be another way in which evolution fits under pantheism’s ‘umbrella’. These are certainly interesting parallels, even if questions about this remain.

Today our world is dominated by evolutionary science. Many people believe in it, yet they are almost certainly unaware that they are associating themselves with these belief systems. By holding to these scientific beliefs, with their pantheistic root, they are actually believing in ancient mystery beliefs, which have been dressed up in scientific apparel, so as to not look like it. Truly the power and influence of Babylonianism is vast!

Darwin’s doctrine of the ‘survival of the fittest’ and the ongoing development of the evolution of Man into a more advanced species are naturally part of this. His work is also related to another field called ‘Eugenics’, which is to do with the advancement and betterment of humanity, and relates to concepts such as shaping and controlling population growth. It also has bearing upon Sociology and of course Social Darwinism.

The fact is Science has ‘dictatorship’ over life, to use part of the Collins’ title for their book. But when we understand its ‘roots’ and appreciate that they are tied to Cabbalism, Freemasonry and the ancient mysteries, then we become aware of the deception within certain scientific forms. I am not anti-Science, but I have concerns when it is true to these ‘roots’.

Michael Hoffman’s book ‘Secret Societies and Psychological Warfare’ is one of the most intriguing books I have read. Hoffman shows how ancient beliefs have gradually moved through culture and become part of its thinking, and eventually has a psychological affect upon people, through mediums such as the Media. The term he uses for this movement of ideas is ‘memes’. One particular example which Hoffman refers to, which is relevant here, is Science. Science has gradually psychologically affected people into an evolutionary way of thinking. Because of this, Science has therefore become ‘Scientism’, where science has authority over all other things. In Hoffman’s work then, we find additional evidence about the ‘dictatorship’ of science over our world today and that this has correlations with pantheism, evolutionary thought and the mystery teachings found in Cabbalism and Freemasonry.

THE ROYAL SOCIETY – ANOTHER LINKAGE?

The British ‘Royal Society’ (of London for improving Natural Knowledge) which is the oldest scientific institute in the world, dating back to the 1660s, has some of its ‘roots’ within Baconian thinking. That is, it has associations to the science of Francis Bacon. Bacon was a scientist who lived until 1626 and was part of the scientific revolution of this early period. He learnt Cabbalism, had an interest in occultism and was also a Rosicrucian. His book ‘The New Atlantis’ and its desire for a perfected world, expressed these beliefs. Contemporary to Bacon was Elizabeth I’s astrologer John Dee, who was also steeped in Cabbalism and occultism. Albus Dumbledore, a character in the Harry Potter books, is modelled on Dee, because Dee was essentially an archetypal wizard! John Dee’s influence also laid the foundation for what later became the British Empire and was part of what one could call ‘British Intelligence’. He had the codename ‘007’. Enter James Bond!

By 1864 The British Royal Society, with these occult roots as part of its history, had an inner circle of men who had influence over almost every scientist in the world. They also had power over what the Media published about their findings. This indicates that they had a great capacity and an ability to shape the view of many people worldwide according to their scientific belief system, which by this time was very much based on ‘evolution’. Thus we have another intriguing linkage between evolutionary science and these occult belief systems.

THE CHURCH TODAY

In order to demonstrate my point I ask the following. How often do we hear of Ministers and Church Leaders using Science first in their discussions about the origins of the Universe, and when they have done so, they then see how the biblical picture of Creation fits with that Science? Surely it should be the other way round? In other words, Science has had authority over the Scriptures, for those who act this way. Science has become Scientism in this example. A Bible believing Christian ought to have the Scripture as their authority first, and then only use Science thereafter in support. In fact only recently I heard Archbishop Rowan Williams on the television essentially agreeing with evolution. Indeed the Church of England recently issued an apology to Darwin after 200 years for misunderstanding him, in an attempt to distance itself from people who believe in biblical creation. The statement came from Rev. Dr. Malcolm Brown, the director of mission and public affairs of the Archbishops’ Council, headed by Williams. 671 This is Scientism indeed! How can it be that there are those in the Church today defending evolution with as much fervour as if they were defending the Word of God itself? Why are so many trying to defend a belief system that has caused more people to disbelieve than believe?

The mainstream Press regularly fails us. We are never informed of certain facts, such as recently another 100 world class scientists have added their names to a list which expresses doubts over Darwinism and its scientific validity for the formation of the world’s species. The list, at the time of writing, now reaches 700 scientists. It includes representatives from the studies of chemistry, biology, dendrology, genetics, molecular biology, organic synthesis, quantum chemistry, bacteriology, astrophysics, mathematics, geriatrics, entomology, economics, biochemistry, physics, electrochemistry and nuclear engineering. 672 Please read dissentfromdarwin.org, which is maintained by the ‘Discovery Institute’s Centre for Science and Culture’. To join the list one needs a PhD in a given field, or a M.D. and serve as a Professor of Medicine – its supporters are not necessarily Christians either. The statement they are asked to sign up to, is: ‘we are sceptical of claims for the ability of random mutation and natural selection to account for the complexity of life. Careful examination of the evidence for Darwinian theory should be encouraged’. Two statements from two of these men are:

‘Darwinism was an interesting idea in the 19th century, when hand waving explanations gave a plausible, if not properly scientific, framework into which we could fit biological facts. However, what we have learned since the days of Darwin throws doubt on natural selection’s ability to create complex biological systems - and we still have little more than hand waving as an argument in its favour’, Professor Colin Reeves, Dept of Mathematical Sciences, Coventry University. And:

‘Darwin’s theory of evolution is the great white elephant of contemporary thought. It is large, almost completely useless, and the object of superstitious awe’, Dr. David Berlinski, PhD, Philosophy. 673

Aldous Huxley, who wrote ‘Brave New World’, was the grandson of the Masonic T H Huxley named above. His sequel ‘Brave New World Revisited’ is a novel about a world under ‘scientific dictatorship’, which the former book also addresses. Interestingly Aldous Huxley made pertinent remarks in the aforementioned book when he said: ‘We know that it is unsafe to allow power to be concentrated in the hands of a ruling oligarchy; nevertheless power is in fact being concentrated in fewer and fewer hands’. 674 He wrote these words in 1959 because he felt that the world was becoming like his novel ‘Brave New World’ more quickly than he had expected. How much more relevant are these concerns today? Bertrand Russell’s book ‘The Impact of Science on Society’ and his defence of how a World Government should exist and function is highly interesting. Indeed much of what he wrote about, even his terminologies, are now part of 21st century living and thinking – nationally and globally.

CONCLUSION

In closing it is important to note how relevant the above section is, by stating that this scientific and evolutionary thought has gone on to influence the organisations I am now going to analyse. The Council on Foreign Relations, The Round Table and its association with Cecil Rhodes, The Rhodes Trust, The World Bank, The International Monetary Fund, for example, are all influenced by science and its dictatorship.

Incidentally, many of these powerful global bodies are linked to the United Nations.

The outcome of this evolutionary world view will be that Man is evolving into something greater - that Man can politically, economically and religiously unify and oversee the coming World Empire. I suggest that as Science deepens and becomes more incredible, it will become almost ‘supernatural’ in its expression. Studies in Transhumanism and Singularitarianism would be useful, because these fields hold that Science is becoming so advanced that it will reach a point where almost anything is possible. If Science advances to this degree, it will then become even truer to its ancient religious and mystery roots, aiding the rise of Babylonianism and the role of the Beast and False Prophet within that.